

Horse Show At South Mountain Fair Attracts 5,000 Saturday; Total Attendance Near 30,000

The South Mountain Fair closed one of its most successful seasons Saturday, with 12,326 pouring into the fairgrounds to bring the total attendance up to 29,330 for the five day event.

Biggest spectator attraction of the concluding day was the horse show which attracted more than 5,000 during the afternoon and brought thrills to the tightly packed audience surrounding the show ring.

One of the biggest thrills was the performance of 24-year-old Amrose, a chestnut gelding owned by Russell Stables, New Cumberland.

Took Other Honors
Amrose, whose age is comparable to between 75 and 80 in a human, leaped the skyscraper jump with an ease that made the performance of much younger horses seem second rate. Not only did the 24-year-old horse take the skyscraper jump honors with ease, but it also won first place in the knock down and out event and second place in the open jump division.

Dutch Baker, grandson of the owner of Russell Stables, rode all of the horses entered from the New Cumberland farm.

Star Return, a 12-year-old from the Russell Stables came in second on the skyscraper jump, and by the toss of a coin, "Chaplin," owned by Mae Biffart New Cumberland, was adjudged third and "Tugboat," owned by Peggy Warner, Chambersburg, was fourth.

60 Horses Take Part
More than 60 horses took part in the event, held throughout the morning and afternoon. The victors in the open five-gated event included first through fourth place, respectively: Brown Crest Blanche, owned by Calcedonia Stables, "Tin Soldier," owned by D. A. Thomas, of York; Royal Rhapodis, owned by D. A. Thomas, and "Dark Diamond," owned by LeRoy H. W. Nebrenner.

Other winners included driving pony, "Bobbie," owned by Charles Martin, Carlisle, first, "Snowflake," owned by Nancy and Mary Bruce Wolf Gettysburg, second.

Laurel, three-gated, first through fourth, respectively, "Sunset Royal," Miss Fifi Cook, Carlisle; "Bouncing Boy," Martin Fowler, Carlisle; "Vic," (Please Turn to Page 2)

FIRE COMPANY RESPONDS TO 3 WEEK-END CALLS

The Gettysburg Fire department answered three calls Saturday night and Sunday afternoon two of them automobiles.

Firemen were called at 11:25 o'clock Saturday night when the brakes on an automobile owned by Gilbert McKenrick, 27 Hanover street, caught fire on the Harrisburg road about a mile north of Gettysburg.

At 2:50 o'clock Sunday afternoon an automobile caught fire at South Washington and West High street from a short circuit in the motor, firemen said. The name of the owner was not learned. Damage to both cars was slight.

Awning Burns
At 8:45 o'clock Sunday evening a small awning on the East Middle street corner of Minter's grocery, Baltimore and East Middle streets, caught fire.

Firemen at the engine house heard an explosion like a firecracker five minutes before the blaze was discovered and believe someone might have tossed one into the awning.

The fire destroyed the awning and scorched telephone wires at the corner of the building.

The three alarms were the 47th, 48th and 49th fires thus far this year.

Russia Is Expected To Start New Campaign Against Treaty

San Francisco, Sept. 10 (P) — Andrei Gromyko is going home from the San Francisco conference with Russia's most potent diplomatic defeat on his record — and with ammunition in his pocket for a new wrecking campaign against the Japanese peace treaty.

Forty-eight nations signed the peace treaty with Japan in a 63-minute ceremony Saturday. For three days of debate Gromyko had cried his warning of war and had tried to get acceptance of amendments which would have rendered Japan defenseless when the treaty becomes effective.

But when the document was put on the table for signing the United States scored a clean sweep. Not one nation was held back by Gromyko's arguments. The number of signers considerably exceeded the pre-conference American estimate of perhaps 44 signers.

State Department officials were especially pleased that both Pakistan and Indonesia accepted the treaty. They had been uncertain and their influence in Asia is of great importance. Offsetting this gain is the fact that India, with great Asian prestige, did not attend.

Scharf Leads Forum At PHA Convention

Russian-Type Rockets Fired On Allies; 80 Jets Tangle; UN Scoffs New Red Charges

Munsan, Korea, Sept. 10 (P) — United Nations officers swapped sharp words with Reds in Kaesong today after investigating a Communist charge that an Allied warplane strayed into the cease-fire conference city this morning.

The U. N. officers refused to give the Reds an on-the-spot report of their investigation. They refused to concede that an attack had occurred or that a U. N. plane was involved.

They acknowledged only that a four-hour check on the alleged neutrality zone violation they found one bullet mark and a dozen 90-caliber shells in and around a group of stone houses. The houses were about three-quarters of a mile from the site of the suspected armistice talks.

Evidence No "Conclusive"
After two meetings with Red liaison officers, the Allied investigators told them the evidence gathered was not conclusive and would be submitted for further analysis.

A pooled dispatch from Kaesong and the U. N. officers pointed out: 1. Nearly all the bullets found were within an area of a few feet. 2. There was no powder smell on any. 3. A few found in soft earth were mashed.

The investigators said the bullets appeared to have been fired from several directions and at different angles.

This would conflict, they said, with the Red assertion that the plane made one pass over the house.

When the investigation was completed the senior Allied officer refused a Communist demand for a reply to the charge.

"Stupid" Statement
Col. Don Darrow, air force officer from Tacoma, Wash., told the senior Red liaison officer, Col. Chang, that the evidence would be studied further. He said he would report his findings to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme Allied commander, and Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U. N. negotiator.

Several times Darrow and Chang exchanged sharp words.

At one point Darrow called a statement by Chang "stupid" and Chang demanded that Darrow be replaced by another U. N. officer.

At a meeting in the truce conference house after the investigation, Chang charged that "this kind of violation" had no purpose other than to delay resumption of the cease-fire negotiations.

While checking on alleged bullet holes in a lettuce field near the group of houses Darrow told Chang all the evidence he had shown is evidence which could have been put there by several different means.

Found Supply Lines
It was one of the most ferocious air battles I have ever seen," said Gabreski, a veteran of aerial warfare against the German Luftwaffe in World War II.

Other Fifth Air Force warplanes ranged through the clear Korean skies to pound Communist supply lines.

DALE BRICKER DIES SUDDENLY

Dale A. Bricker, 43, Biglerville tax collector, died suddenly this morning at 11:30 o'clock at the Warner hospital.

Mr. Bricker was rushed to the hospital after suffering a heart attack at 8:30 a.m. at Gettysburg Bakery, Biglerville, where he had been employed for a number of years.

He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville. Mrs. B. B. and the Biglerville are company.

Surviving are his widow, the former Blanche Laxer, two children, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Biglerville R. 1, Helen, Richard, Donald and Gretchen, all at home, one son and one daughter, and several brothers and sisters.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

State Police Make Week-end Arrests

Perfect late summer weather brought out thousands of motorists Sunday afternoon and traffic was heavy on all the main highways in Adams county. State police of the Gettysburg substation said.

Many were out for just an afternoon's ride, while hundreds of others from near and far came to Adams county in search of fun.

With peaches at their best and the camping season in hand, fruit stands did a rushing business.

State police later later only two accidents both Sunday evening, but they made 10 arrests for various offenses including speeding, improper passes, stop sign violations and overloads.

PLEADS GUILTY

Francis Foke Gettysburg R. 3 arrested Saturday afternoon by state police of the Gettysburg substation on a charge of operating an automobile after suspension of his license, signed a plea of guilty before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore. He was committed to jail for the next term of court in default of $500 bail.

Baschore may be brought before Magistrate Charles Glick of Emmitsburg this evening for a hearing.

Westminster Man To Get Hearing Tonight

Merrill Albert Conover, 22, Westminster, Md., is being held in the Frederick county jail at Frederick, Md., for investigation and trial after being taken into custody by Emmitsburg chief of police Robert K. Kuntz early Saturday morning.

Responding to a call from the residence of Lawrence Orndorff, East Main street, to the effect that a man had broken into a screened porch, Kuntz began a search that later located Conover in a car belonging to Zurgabe brothers of Emmitsburg. Kuntz said Conover was identified by Mrs. Orndorff as the person who had been seen on her porch.

Conover may be brought before Magistrate Charles Glick of Emmitsburg this evening for a hearing.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

A "Keep Green" conscious citizenry held Pennsylvania's forest fires to a near record low of 916 in 1950. These fires burned 37,788 acres of timberland. In 1949 the state had 1,558 fires that burned 32,805 acres.

One fire was caused by lightning; 147 by railroads; 195 by campers; 244 by smokers; 176 by debris burning; 55 by incendiaries; 3 by lumbering and 95 listed as miscellaneous.

Twenty-one other states had lower forest fire totals than Pennsylvania.

Scharf Leads Forum At PHA Convention

A luncheon Sunday in the Penn-Harris hotel, Harrisburg, for the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Hotel association opened the group's 48th annual convention, which will continue today and Tuesday.

A public relations forum, a feature of this morning's session, was held by Henry M. Scharf of Gettysburg, Edmund L. Flynn of Bedford and Frank L. Andrews, chairman of the public relations committee of the American Hotel association.

Sunday's luncheon was followed by a tour of Indiantown Gap and a buffet supper there for managers and their wives, who were guests of Maj. Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general.

Officers were to be elected this afternoon and Daniel J. O'Brien, AHA president, will be the speaker at the annual convention banquet this evening. Franklin Moore, Penn-Harris hotel manager, will be toastmaster.

INVITE PUBLIC TO FARM MEET HERE TUESDAY

All counties are invited to attend the Agricultural Mobilization Board's meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the court house. Martin T. Walter, chairman, said today.

The meeting is being held to permit the various federal farm agencies to explain the nature of their work and permit the public to state its opinions on what is important and that which is not too relative in the programs of the various agencies.

Originally scheduled for all farmers in the county, the meeting will also be open to anyone else who wishes to attend. Mr. Walter said.

Send Report To Ag. Dept.

A report of the meeting and the ideas expressed will be forwarded to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Among the agencies to be represented at the meeting will be the Production and Marketing administration, agriculture extension, soil conservation district, Farm Credit administration, Rural Electrification administration and others.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter will be the moderator.

Russia Is Expected To Start New Campaign Against Treaty

San Francisco, Sept. 10 (AP) — Andrei Gromyko is going home from the San Francisco conference with Russia's worst postwar diplomatic defeat on his record — and with ammunition in his pocket for a new wrecking campaign against the Japanese peace treaty.

American diplomats, winding up their affairs in the conference city today, predicted Russia will do its utmost to undermine popular support for the treaty with a massive propaganda attack throughout Asia and the Far East.

Gromyko, who left by train for New York yesterday, prepared the ammunition for that assault in his speeches and actions at the peace conference — notably by his charges of American "dictation" and his repeated predictions of a "new war" in the Orient. He also made much of Red China's exclusion.

Expect New Plot

At some point, furthermore, it is considered probable that Russia will put forth, in collaboration with Red China, plans for a separate Communist bloc peace treaty with Ja-

MEN OF CHURCH WILL MARCH IN 40-HOURS FETE

All men and youths of high school age and members of the Holy Name Society of St. Francis Xavier Catholic church will march in the procession in connection with the close of Forty Hours devotions at the church Tuesday evening.

At a meeting of the Holy Name Society Sunday evening at the local parochial school, President George Haenn said the membership would meet in the school at 7:15 o'clock Tuesday night and enter the church as a unit at 7:30 o'clock. The Holy Name men will be seated in pews in the central, front section of the church for the service.

Members present at Sunday night's meeting were asked to contact other members to assure a large attendance for participation in the procession.

Conewago Observance

Plans for participation in the 200th anniversary observance of the arrival of the first resident pastor at Conewago Chapel, Sunday, October 14, were outlined. President Haenn urged members to take their wives and children with them to the event, and then have the society meet there to take part as a group.

Named as a basketball committee to coach students of St. Francis Xavier school, and promote games for them were Edward Redding, Raymond Redding and George Miller, Jr.

Plans were announced for an intensive membership campaign during October with Clarence Steinhour, Joseph E. Smith, George Miller, Jr., Martin Slade and Martin Redding named as members of the committee.

Plans were also outlined for the annual fall communion breakfast to be held by the society on November 11. James Sneeringer, G. Henry Roth and Bernard V. Miller were selected as the committee to arrange for the breakfast.

AUGUST SETS BIRTH RECORD

Ninety births were recorded in Gettysburg during August, 87 of them live births and three still-born, the largest number of births for any month since records have been kept. The registration of birth and deaths began in 1906. December 1950 held the previous record, with 87 live births and one still-born. There were 71 live and one still-born in August, 1950.

All of the births in the district, comprising Gettysburg and the townships of Cumberland, Straban, Freedom and Franklin, were in Gettysburg. The total number of births for the first eight months of 1951 according to Ralph C. Geiselman, registrar of vital statistics for this district, was 594, compared with 538 for the first eight months of 1950.

There were 20 deaths in August excluding the stillborn infants; 11 male and five female in Gettysburg; three male in Cumberland township, and one female in Straban township. In August last year there were 11 deaths, and a total for the first eight months of 123, exclusive of stillbirths.

BURIED SATURDAY

Funeral services were held here Saturday for William Winner, Crawford county, who died in Cumberland township last Thursday. Interment was made in the Eagles' lot in the Evergreen cemetery with the Rev. Clyde R. Brown, Presbyterian pastor, officiating. Bearers were Oscar Six, Charles Leshlter, Herbert Taylor and Howard Kitzmiller.

Russian-Type Rockets Fired On Allies; 80 Jets Tangle; UN Scoffs New Red Charges

Munsan, Korea, Sept. 10 (AP) — United Nations officers swapped sharp words with Reds in Kaesong today after investigating a Communist charge that an Allied warplane stated the cease-fire conference city this morning.

The U. N. officers refused to give the Reds an on-the-spot report of their investigation. They refused to concede that an attack had occurred or that a U. N. plane was involved.

They acknowledged only that a four-hour checkup on the alleged neutrality zone violation they found one bullet mark and a dozen 50 caliber slugs in and around a group of stone houses. The houses were about three-quarters of a mile from the site of the suspended armistice talks.

Evidence No "Conclusive"

After two meetings with Red liaison officers, the Allied investigators told them the evidence gathered was not conclusive and would be submitted for further analysis.

A pooled dispatch from Kaesong said the U. N. officers pointed out: 1. Nearly all the bullets found were within an area of a few feet.

2. There was no powder smell on any.

3. A few found in soft earth were mashed.

The investigators said the bullets appeared to have been fired from several directions and at different angles.

This would conflict, they said, with the Red assertion that the plane made one pass over the house.

When the investigation was completed, the senior Allied officer refused a Communist demand for a reply to the charge.

"Stupid" Statement

Col. Don Darrow, air force officer from Tacoma, Wash., told the senior Red liaison officer, Col. Chang, that the evidence would be studied further. He said he would report his findings to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme Allied commander, and Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U. N. negotiator.

Several times Darrow and Chang exchanged sharp words.

At one point Darrow called a statement by Chang "stupid" and Chang demanded that Darrow be replaced by another U. N. officer.

At a meeting in the true conference house after the investigation, Chang charged that "this kind of violation" had no purpose other than to delay resumption of the cease-fire negotiations.

While checking on alleged bullet holes in a lettuce field near the group of houses, Darrow told Chang "all the evidence you have shown is evidence which could have been put there by several different means."

Pound Supply Lines

"It was one of the most ferocious air battles I have ever seen," said Gabreski, a veteran of aerial warfare against the German Luftwaffe in World War II.

Other Fifth Air Force warplanes ranged through the clear Korean skies to pound Communist supply lines.

DALE BRICKER DIES SUDDENLY

Dale A. Bricker, 43, Biglerville tax collector, died suddenly this morning at 11:30 o'clock at the Warner hospital.

Mr. Bricker was rushed to the hospital after suffering a heart attack at 8:30 a.m. at Gettler's Bakery, Biglerville, where he had been employed for a number of years.

He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville, Men's Bible class and the Biglerville fire company.

Surviving are his widow, the former Blanche Lawver; five children, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Biglerville R. 1; Helen, Richard, Donald and Glen, all at home; one grandchild and several brothers and sisters.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

State Police Make Week-end Arrests

Perfect late summer weather brought out thousands of motorists Sunday afternoon, and traffic was heavy on all the main highways in Adams county, state police of the Gettysburg substation said.

Many were out for "just an afternoon's ride," while hundreds of others, from near and far, came to Adams county in search of its famous fruit. With peaches at their best, and the canning season at hand, fruit stands did a rushing business all afternoon.

State police investigated only two accidents, both Sunday evening, but they made 10 arrests, for a variety of offenses, including speeding, improper passes, stop sign violations and overloads.

PLEADS GUILTY

Francis Fogle, Gettysburg R. 3, arrested Saturday afternoon by state police of the Gettysburg substation on a charge of operating an automobile after suspension of his license, signed a plea of guilty before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore. He was committed to jail for the next term of court in default of $500 bail.

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters

Korea, Sept. 10 (AP) — Rockets of the type used by the Russians in World War II have landed behind Allied lines on the east central front, it was officially reported today.

There was speculation they might have been brought to Korea by Communist Caucasian troops recently reported near the battlefield.

No Allied installations were hit. Official sources refused to disclose the number of rockets that landed.

In the air war, 30 American F-86 Sabre jets tangled with 80 Russian-type MIG-15s over northwest Korea in one of history's biggest jet battles. Two Communist planes were damaged.

No Allied Losses

It was the second jet battle in two days. Sunday the Allies shot down two MIGs and damaged another. There were no allied losses in either scrap.

Army sources said unofficially tonight they have reliable but not conclusive evidence that Russian pilots have been flying some of the MIGs in battles against the United Nations.

Since rockets, to be effective, must blanket an area, it is possible those which landed on the east central front were fired accidentally. They were not aimed at any specific target. Reports indicated only a small number were fired.

Eighth Army officers refused to say whether they could have been launched from a Communist plane.

Similar To Red Rocket

At least one rocket was identified definitely as being of the size used by the Red army against the Germans.

The missiles are erratic, but awesome when fired in barrages.

Their launching requires skilled handling, which indicated they may be part of the arms to be used by the Reds' Caucasian troops if and when they are thrown into battle.

The Allies have used rockets infrequently in the Korean war, primarily to blanket an area which infantrymen are going to attack.

Monday's jet air battle ranged from altitudes of 40,000 feet down to tree-top level.

The Allied warplanes were led to battle by Col. Francis Gabreski, America's top ace.

Pound Supply Lines

"It was one of the most ferocious air battles I have ever seen," said Gabreski, a veteran of aerial warfare against the German Luftwaffe in World War II.

Other Fifth Air Force warplanes ranged through the clear Korean skies to pound Communist supply lines.

Kids Stage Play As Flood Relief Fund "Benefit"

A dramatic production staged by a group of fifth graders Saturday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Smith, West Lincoln avenue, by a cast that averaged something under 10 years of age, boosted the Red Cross flood relief fund by $1.50.

The benefit play was titled "The Operation" and it was produced and staged by Philip Smith, 10-year-old son of the "theater's" owners. Frank Skidmore, a 10-year-old neighbor, was the director. The cast included Robert Zhea, Ronald Stokes, Skidmore and Philip Smith and his younger sister, Peggy.

Immediately after the final curtain, the producers proudly rushed the "net proceeds" to the Red Cross office on Baltimore street.

The audience of about 25 was admitted on a complicated scale of admission rates. Members of families of members of the cast were admitted for two cents each. Non-family patrons were charged three cents if they were under five years of age and five cents if they were (Please turn to page 8)

Westminster Man To Get Hearing Tonight

Merrill Albert Conover, 22, Westminster, Md., is being held in the Frederick county jail at Frederick, Md., for "investigation and trial" after being taken into custody by Emmitsburg's chief of police, Robert Koontz, early Saturday morning.

Responding to a call from the residence of Lawrence Orendorff, East Main street, to the effect that a man had broken into a screened porch there, Koontz began a search that later located Conover in a car belonging to Zurgabe brothers of Emmitsburg. Koontz said Conover was identified by Mrs. Orendorff as the person who had been seen on her porch.

Conover may be brought before Magistrate Charles Gillella of Emmitsburg this evening for a hearing.

INDIAN POWWOW ENDS IN PEACE

Blanding, Utah, Sept. 8 (AP) — A three-day Indian pow-wow ended last night and the participants peacefully broke camp after causing an uproar by giving the burn's rush to two white police officers.
A small army of peace officers converged on the Indian camp at Bluff, 27 miles south of here, yesterday after both citizens and the two ousted officers called for help.
Some 300 Indians, Utes and Navahos from Arizona, Utah and New Mexico, had gathered Wednesday for their traditional "squad dance," which some said is held just as plain celebration for practically any reason.
All went well until yesterday morning. Then Father H. B. Leibler of St. Christopher's mission asked Highway Patrolman Merlin Brown of Moab to investigate. He said some of the Indians were drinking.
Brown and San Juan County Sheriff T. R. Harvey of Monticello arrived at Bluff and started to collar two Indians who allegedly had been selling wine. The officers quickly were given to understand they weren't wanted.
Brown and Harvey then summoned aid, and reinforcements were rushed in. Volunteers from Blanding and other police officers soon had things under control. The wine was reportedly cut with grain alcohol neither of which can be sold legally to Indians.

ILL SIX MONTHS, EXPIRES TODAY

Mrs. Dessa Mae Bream, 82, wife of John M. Bream, died at her home on East York street, Biglerville, at 12:45 o'clock this morning of complications. She had been ill for six months and bedfast throughout this time.

A daughter of the late Philip M. and Mary Ernelt Wertz, she was born in Frankstown and came to Adams county upon her marriage 58 years ago.

A member of St. Paul's Lutheran church and Missionary society she taught Sunday school for many years and always was active in church work. She was a member of the first Lutheran church, Altoona, where she resided for 11 years, prior to moving to Adams county. She was a dressmaker for many years.

Surviving are her husband, a stepson, Mervin U. Bream, Gettysburg, and the following brothers and sisters, Miss Vera Wertz, Altoona; Miss Salome Wertz, Altoona; Martin Wertz, Detroit, and Mrs. Roy Isenberg, Detroit.

Private funeral services from the late home in Biglerville Wednesday at 4 p.m. with the Rev. H. W. Stern officiating. Interment in the Biglerville cemetery. Friends may call at the late home Tuesday evening after 7 o'clock. Please omit flowers.

Library Announces Fair Book Winners

Hundreds of South Mountain fair visitors inspected the display of the Adams County Free library there last week and five of them were awarded autographed copies of books by Adams county authors. Visitors were invited to register in the book contest and a daily drawing was made.

In addition to "Redwing," the library's bookmobile which calls at all county schools monthly, there was a display of current fiction and magazines and an outline map of the county that showed the location of all schools, branches and book stations visited regularly by the bookmobile.

The autographed copies were awarded as follows: "Pennsylvania Story," by Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, awarded to Mrs. M. E. Bryan, New Oxford; "The Last Reunion of the Blue and Gray," by Paul L. Roy, awarded to Mrs. Sterling Barbour, Aspers R. 1; "As I See It From Rampike Hill," by L. C. Taylor, to D. M. Small, Chambersburg; "Of The Dutch I Sing," by Allene Saeger DeChant, to Mrs. Robert Staub, Biglerville R. 1, and "Stories to Read at Christmas Time," by Elsie Singmaster, to Mrs. David Deitch, Carlisle street.

MRS. DEVINE DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Helen A. Devine, 79, Hanover R. 4, Edge Grove, widow of James I. Devine, was found dead in her home late Sunday afternoon.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, investigated and attributed death to a cerebral hemorrhage. He placed the time of death at about 6 a.m.

Mrs. Devine was a native of Adams county, a daughter of the late David C. and Martha (Spalding) Smith. She was a member of Conewago Chapel, Sodality society, Lady of Fabian society and the auxiliary of the Conewago fire company.

Surviving is a stepson, Thomas F. Devine, Edge Grove; two step-grandchildren, and a number of nephews and nieces.

Funeral services at the home of her stepson Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. with mass at 10 a.m. at Conewago chapel. Interment in the Conewago cemetery. Friends may call at the home of the stepson Tuesday evening where prayers will be offered at 8 o'clock.

Maryland Trooper Arrests Fugitive

A man said to be wanted by post office inspectors of the Chattanooga, Tenn., division, and sought in Gettysburg, Emmitsburg, and elsewhere in this section of Pennsylvania, was arrested Friday afternoon in Emmitsburg by Maryland State Trooper Brown of Thurmont.

Authorities said the man, who used the name of J. R. Stone and several aliases, including Dan White, Stan White and William Robert McGuire, was wanted for postal violations in Tennessee.

He is alleged to have had post office boxes in New Oxford and Emmitsburg. Postal Inspector C. E. Moo, of York, state police, and others were looking for the man last week.

Cars Crash Sunday At Heidlersburg

Automobiles operated by Richard T. Keenan, 28, of Rochester, N. Y., and John Suddon, Jr., 37, of Hawley, Pa., collided at the Heidlersburg intersection at 9:45 o'clock Sunday night, according to state police of the Gettysburg substitution.

Police said no one was injured and estimated damage to each car at $100. According to police records Keenan was driving south on the Harrisburg road and made a right turn onto Route 224. Suddon had stopped on the latter highway at the stop sign, and was struck by the Keenan car, police said.

TRUMAN BACK AT DESK TODAY

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—President Truman returns to his desk today after a seven-day trip during which he attended the opening of the Japanese peace treaty conference and took a brief holiday at his Missouri home.

Some political observers thought they saw in the trip growing indications that Mr. Truman will be a candidate to succeed himself next year. He has said he has decided what he is going to do but isn't ready to announce his decision.

At Kansas City, Mr. Truman had a vigorous, if terse, defense of Secretary of State Acheson. He told newsmen he had talked with Acheson by telephone on Saturday night and congratulated the secretary on the successful outcome of the San Francisco conference. Of their conversation, the President said: "He's smarter than any of those guys that have been attacking him."

While in California, the President tentatively accepted an invitation to attend a $100 a plate money raising dinner being arranged by the Democratic National committee for Los Angeles on October 8.

No announcement was made, but close associates said Mr. Truman is planning to attend and that he may travel to the coast by train. That would give him an opportunity for the type of rear platform speeches he employed so extensively in the 1948 campaign.

Dr. Martin To Report At Mitchell Field

Dr. James A. Martin, Mummaburg road, veterinarian, will report to the Air Force at Mitchell Field, Long Island, New York, next Monday for duty. After a period of processing from 20 to 30 days, he will be sent to the United States Air Force Headquarters in Europe at Wiesbaden, Germany.

Dr. Martin, who will hold the rank of captain, will have duties including the checking of meat purchased by the air force in Germany.

Until Doctor Martin's return, Dr. John P. Spangler, of Emmitsburg, will handle the federal and state testing locally as well as Doctor Martin's other calls.

Mrs. Martin and their daughter, Susan, will remain at the Martin residence. Captain Martin's address will be APO 633, New York, N. Y.

Greek Military Hero Wins Election

Athens, Sept. 10 (AP)—Field Marshal Alexander Papagos, military hero who smashed Communist resistance in the Greek civil war, led decisively today in Sunday's voting on leadership in the government.

He had refused privately three times before to take the Greek premiership because he had not been elected by the people.

On the basis of unofficial returns from 3,011 of the nation's 3,910 precincts, Papagos was virtually sure to take command of the country with a clear majority of Parliament's 260 seats. With 899 precincts still to report his new Royalist Greek Rally party led the ticket with 35 percent of the votes.

Unofficially dubbed "the man on the white horse," Papagos is a right wing leader counted on by his supporters to lead Greece out of the political instability it has had since it was liberated seven years ago.

Big Three Open Conference Today

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson and Britain's Herbert Morrison discuss their difference over cold war tactics, in the opening meeting today of the Big Three Western foreign ministers' conference.

A proposed new partnership deal for West Germany, the British dispute with Egypt over Suez, and the Iranian and Far East crises were expected by diplomats to figure in the talk.

Acheson, Morrison and Foreign Minister Robert Schuman of France flew to the capital in an Air Force plane last night from the Japanese Peace conference at San Francisco. For the next four days, in the first full dress Big Three meeting in a year, they are due to talk over a global range of problems—mostly involving Soviet Russia and communism.

Today's Acheson-Morrison talks are to be followed tomorrow by a similar session between Acheson and Schuman. Beginning Wednesday it will be a three-way discussion.

Westover Air Force Base, Mass., Sept. 10 (AP)—Air force rescue planes were briefed today for what was either a search for parachuted fliers down in wild seas off Greenland or a wild goose chase set off by a distress signal hoax.

It all started yesterday when "weak" SOS signals were reported picked up by a radio tower at Tinker Field, Okla. No one was able to pin down exactly what the distress message was originally but widely separated sources followed up with reports which indicated a plane's crew had bailed out.

London, Sept. 10 (AP)—A Buckingham palace spokesman said today King George VI "is continuing to lead his normal life" despite press speculation that he is seriously ill.

The king made a trip by train from his Scottish castle of Balmoral to London Saturday for an X-ray examination. He then flew back to resume his grouse-shooting holiday. The week-end before, two of the king's doctors had flown to Balmoral to see him after he came down with a cold.

FINED BY JUSTICE

Harry Edwin Hess, 38, of Hyattsville, Ind., was fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace Martin Walter, Biglerville, after his automobile ran off the Biglerville road near the Table Rock intersection at 11:30 o'clock Sunday night and struck a pole. State police charged him with reckless driving. They said he fell asleep at the wheel.

Press and radio recently featured the amazing case of a negro woman who was found frozen in a Chicago alley in a condition which bordered on rigor mortis. Her body temperature, pulse and respiration were all so low that it seemed impossible that she could survive—no one in a similar condition ever had. However, skillful and unremitting work by doctors, nurses and hospital attendants resulted in a miracle—the woman lived.

An unusual comment on the matter appeared shortly thereafter in the Arkansas State College newspaper, which said, "To us in the United States, this case appeals mainly as another wonderful accomplishment of modern medicine, but in countries with socialized medicine, the citizens are struck dumb at another miracle. This miracle is the time consumed by the hospital staff on one patient."

"In socialized medicine countries, doctors and nurses are plagued with insignificant cut and bruise cases and innumerable neurotics who must be cared for under penalty of the law. Each patient is allotted a certain amount of time. Hospital staffs cease to take a personal interest in their patients and haven't the time to care for the patients as individuals."

"Although the medical profession in this country is accused of being mercenary, and some arguments can be given to support these accusations, socialized medicine is not the cure."

In other words, medicine is one place where the mass-production idea does not fit. We must never destroy that fine relationship between doctor and patient which has been built up so painstakingly under our system of free medicine.

33 More Volunteer As Blood Donors

Thirty-three Adams county men and women enrolled as Red Cross blood donors at the South Mountain fair last week, the Red Cross said today, bringing the current total to 387. Three thousand are being sought.

The blood donors were enrolled at the Red Cross tent where a first aid station was maintained throughout the week.

STOCKS PUSH AHEAD

New York, Sept. 10 (AP)—With steel attracting the heaviest demand, the stock market today continued its steady forward push. The advance went to a little past $2 a share among leaders, and the losses were severely limited. Activity expanded to a better than average level, with the total weighted with a number of large blocks. The air-crafts and distillers kept pace with the steel division in volume of business and price-wise did a little better than the steels.

ATHLETICS NIP PENNANT HOPES OF BOSTON SOX

By JOE REICHLER

(Associated Press Baseball Writer)
Thanks to Jimmy Dykes' animated A's, the American league race, for the time being at least, has become a two-team battle between the front-running Yankees and the runner-up Indians.

Boston's third-place Red Sox, hot on the heels of the leaders for months, saw their pennant hopes all but shattered yesterday when the sixth-place Athletics drubbed them in a doubleheader, 10-4 and 3-2.

The double defeat dropped the Red Sox five and a half games behind the Yankees and Indians.

Yanks Edge Ahead

The Yankees increased their slim first-place margin to four percentage points over the Tribe by sweeping a pair from Washington, 7-5 and 2-0. Cleveland also won, 4-3, from the St. Louis Browns.

The New York Giants kept their flickering pennant hopes alive in the National league race, defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers, 2-1, to climb back within five and a half games of the lead. The St. Louis Cardinals entrenched their hold on third place with a pair of triumphs over Pittsburgh, 2-1 in 10 innings, and 7-4.

Boston's Braves trounced Philadelphia's Phils twice in their battle for fourth place, 5-4 and 4-1. Chicago's Cubs emerged from the cellar, splitting a doubleheader with Cincinnati. The Reds won the second game, 7-0, after the Cubs had captured the opener, 7-3.

Chicago's White Sox edged out Detroit, 4-3, in a game that had no bearing on the American league race.

Three Homers For A's

The Red Sox, who had previously whipped the A's 15 times in 20 meetings, were beaten with their own weapon—the home run. A three-run homer by Eddie Joost snapped a 4-4 tie and sparked the A's to a six-run eighth inning that won the opener.

Gus Zernial's 30th circuit clout with a mate aboard, and another homer by Dave Philley accounted for all of Philadelphia's shant in the nightcap. Little Bobby Shantz hurled a three-hitter to win his 15th game and give the A's their 11th sweep of a doubleheader—high for the majors.

The home run also played a major role in the Yankees' double win over the Senators. They unloosed five four-baggers for all but one of their runs in the first game. Yogi Berra, who hit one of those, also homered in the nightcap to help Vic Raschi register his 18th victory. The game was halted after five and a half innings because of darkness.

Magie Beats Dodgers

Jim Hegan was the hitting star for the Indians as they overcame an early 3-0 deficit and won in the ninth inning. The big catcher, who earlier had driven in a run, opened the ninth with a single, his third hit. He moved to third on two bunts and scored on Bob Avila's long fly. Mike Garcia, who hurled the last two innings, picked up his 19th triumph.

A fourth-inning home run by Monte Irvin with one man on base was all Sal Magie needed to whip the Dodgers as the New York right-hander became the first National league pitcher to record 20 victories. Cleveland's Bob Feller, with 22, is the only other big leaguer with 20 or more wins.

Wally Westlake batted in four runs with a single and homer to help the Cards hand his former Pittsburgh mates the second beating of the day. A tenth-inning single by Solly Hemus, followed by Red Schoendienst' double, won the opener.

Sports In Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Football
New York—Tennessee was voted country's No. 1 college football team in Associated Press pre-season poll.
Seattle—All-American back Don Heinrich of Washington university injured when tackled in practice and may be lost to team for six weeks or more.

Golf

Albany, N. Y. — Buck White, Greenwood, Miss., won $15,000 Empire State Golf tournament with 72-hole score of 284.

Carrollton, Ga.—Louise Suggs' 54-hole score of 221 beat Mrs. Mildred (Babe) Zaharias by one stroke in Carrollton Invitational Golf tourney.

Racing

New York—Alerted ($18.50) defeated Battlefield by a head in thrilling stretch duel in $22,450 discovery handicap at Aqueduct.

New York—Jimmy Jones, Calumet trainer, announced retirement of Coaltown, sprinter who formed stable's one-two punch with Citation.

IN PRO TOURNEY

Riley Heckert, golf pro at the Gettysburg Country club, and his partner, Ted Robertson, shot a gross 72 score in the first annual pro-members tournament Sunday at the Hershey Country club. Henry Williams, Jr., of the Berkleigh Country club, won individual honors with a two-under par 71.

Odd place names in New Mexico include White Tail, Water Flow, Turn, Tobogan, Tingle, Pep and Dusty.

List Favorites In National Amateur

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 10 (AP)—If you handicapped golfers the way you do race horses, the morning line on the 51st National Amateur Golf tournament, opening today, would list three short-odds favorites.

They are: Jim McHale, Sam Urzetta and Frank Stranahan.

This is the consensus of the United States Walker Cup members, polled informally as they put in final practice whacks over the long, par 71 Saucon Valley Country club.

The nine internationalists, all of them rated as outstanding contenders, also picked Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City; Dick Chapman of Westhurst, N. C., and Ted Bishop of Weymouth, Mass., as "good bets."

"Also don't overlook the dark horses," they warned. "This is a funny tournament and anybody can take it."

Their dark-horse nominations included Francis G. (Bo) Winger of Northfield, N. J., who made a good showing in the last National Open at Oakland Hills; Dae Morey of Martinsville, Ind.; Bob Gardner of Los Angeles and Jack Munger of Dallas.

TURPIN READY FOR ROBINSON

Grossinger, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—If Sugar Ray Robinson intends to come out swinging against Middleweight Champion Randy Turpin on Wednesday night, there will be plenty of early fireworks at the Polo grounds.

"I shall be ready to meet him if he does that," said the cool, superbly conditioned Briton who rarely takes a backward step. "I feel confident of winning."

Robinson apparently has every intention of ending the 15-rounder as quickly as possible. In most of his training maneuvers, he has been firing from a flat-footed stance and with plenty of power.

A close friend of Sugar Ray said "He's going to get that guy quick or they're going to have to carry Ray out of there. He wants to take back more than anything else in the world."

"Robinson had better get him early, if he's ever going to get him," said Barney Ross, the former welterweight champion who has watched most of Turpin's workouts in this Catskill mountains resort.

In what was announced as his final boxing workout—Randy could change his mind—Turpin sparred three rounds each with Zack Hobbs, Billy Dockery and Eddie Phillips. He kept on top of them all the way in a workout, devoting most of his efforts to blocking and slipping punches. His muscular forearm seemed to be everywhere. Few blows got through his tight guard.

TANEYTOWN IS PEN-MAR CHAMP

A six-run rally in the seventh inning gave Taneytown a 12-5 victory over Fairfield in the playoff for the regular season championship of the Pen-Mar Baseball league Sunday afternoon at Taneytown. The teams had finished the regular season tied for first place.

The teams were deadlocked at 5-5 when Taneytown put on its big rally. Taneytown added another run in the eighth frame. Shank poled a homerun for the winners.

Weikert and J. Sites divided the pitching for Fairfield while Gilbert and Shaffer twirled for Taneytown. The Shaughnessy playoffs of the circuit will open next Sunday afternoon with third-place Littlestown playing at Taneytown and second-place Fairfield playing at McSherrystown. Both series will be of a best-of-three affair. The final series will also be on the best-of-three basis.

Thurmont gained a 7-6 victory over the Littlestown baseball team in an exhibition game Sunday. The game was called in the sixth inning while Thurmont was at bat when "Lovie" Breighner, Littlestown catcher, suffered a dislocated finger on his right hand and Littlestown had no replacement for him.

SCHOOLBOY GRID WINNERS SHOW OLD TIME FORM

Harrisburg, Sept. 10 (AP)—Strong contenders have asserted themselves already in Pennsylvania's three largest schoolboy football conferences but the defending champions continue their winning ways.

The 55-team Eastern conference largest of the state's dozen major grid loops, opened its season with 1950 titlist Coal township scoring an easy 21-0 win over Mt. Carmel.

Butler, only undefeated Class A team last year in the WPIAL, downed Kittanning, 15-0, in a non-league game that might indicate the defending champs have lost some of their steam. Kittanning is a Class A school.

Bellwood-Antis, 1950 winner in the Western conference, had enough power in its depleted ranks to turn back a strong Tyrone, 19-7. However, more impressive was Huntingdon's 26-6 victory over a veteran Conemaugh.

Farrell pulled the most impressive triumph in Class AA ranks of the WPIAL by upsetting strong Har-Bar, 19-6.

Other Results

A host of other strong contenders have shown themselves ready to challenge Butler. They include Altoona, with a 33-0 lacing of Mt. Union; McKeesport, which topped Glassport, 46-6; Johnstown, with a 25-6 win over German township; Ambridge's 29-6 decision of Tarentum; New Castle, 13-7 victor over Erie Academy, and Greensburg, which blanketed Vandergrift, 27-0.

Coal township already has seen signs of power from Berwick, which smothered Hazle township, 52-0; Pottsville, 20-0 winner over Frackville, and Schuylkill Haven, which upset Ashland, 19-13.

The Section II conference of PIAA District 10 opened its first campaign with co-favorite Oil City taking a league victory over Titusville, 24-13. Warren upset Corry, 13-6, in another league game while Meadville, the other co-favorite, took a 45-0 triumph over non-league Conneaut Valley.

Meanwhile, one 20-game victory streak was broken while another remained intact in opening night games. Leechburg of Armstrong county saw its skien stopped by Wilmerding, 31-12. Bell township of Westmoreland county ran its chain of victories to 21 by dropping East Pittsburgh, 25-6.

Westbury, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—Ferman Hanover set a new track record of 2:02 for a four-year-old gelding on a half mile track Saturday in winning the featured Rockville Centre pace for $5,000 at Roosevelt Raceway.

Ferman Hanover broke a record which had stood for 10 years. Senator Abbe was the former record-holder with a 2:02 1/2 mark made in Coshocton, Ohio, in 1941.

31,000 See Races At Williams Grove

Williams Grove, Pa., Sept. 10 (AP)—If Troy Ruttman doesn't set records at the raceway here he makes sure the man who beats him does.

The Ontario, Calif., driver last year set a new course record for 30-lap races with a mark of 13 minutes, 26 seconds on the half-mile track.

Yesterday he pushed Tommy Hinnerschitz of Reading all the way before Hinnerschitz beat him in the 30-lap Darwin Cooper sweepstakes before 31,000 fans. And when the dust settled, a new time record of 31 minutes, 21 seconds testified to their neck and neck battle. Jimmy Bryan of Phoenix, Ariz., wound up third ahead of Duke Nalon who was making his first appearance here since 1947.

The Sunbury Giants defeated the Allentown Cardinals 6 to 4 yesterday, thereby eliminating the Cards from the Governor's cup playoffs.

By taking four out of seven games the Giants qualified to meet the Wilmington Blue Rocks in the championship tilt this week. Sunbury finished fourth in the regular season standings. Wilmington, which wound up in the third place, eliminated the pennant-winning Hagerstown Braves Saturday.

Carl Maloney, the Giants' ace right-hander, pitched and batted his team to its victory. He held Allentown to seven hits, struck out three and rapped out three hits in four times at bat.

Tom Casagrande, Philadelphia Phillies' $40,000 bonus pitcher, hurled the Blue Rocks to a 4 to 3 triumph. He held the Braves to six hits, three of them in the ninth inning.

The Giants and the Blue Rocks start the final round of play tonight at Wilmington.

N. Y. Housewife Is New "Mrs. America"

Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP)—The hazel-eyed strawberry blonde New York city housewife who won the Mrs. America title yesterday says she has no ambition beyond her family.

Chosen over 32 other married beauties in a contest that measures homemaking talent equally with figure and face, 22-year-old Penny Duncan said it was exciting and unbelievable to win.

Her prizes include $7,500 in gifts and a tour of the eastern states in radio, TV and personal appearances like her predecessor, Mrs. Betty McAllister of Detroit, Mich., and then? "No more contests," said Mrs. Duncan. "My career is my family and I'll just stay home with them."

Mrs. America of 1952 is the wife of Maynard Duncan, a student and the mother of a two-year-old boy, Craig. She won the title after displaying her five feet 7 1/2 inches and 126 pounds in a fitted white bathing suit with straps.

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—Senator Morse (R-Ore) today demanded a Senate inquiry into "reports of corruption" which he said cloud the Chinese Nationalist government's move to recall two of its military officials.

BRUSHTOWN TO MEET GRANITE IN BIG SERIES

Brushtown became a finalist in the Shaughnessy playoffs of the South Penn Baseball league by crushing Hunterstown 10-3 on the latter's field Sunday afternoon. The triumph gave Brushtown two straight triumphs in the best of three series with Hunterstown.

The title series will open next Sunday at Brushtown with Granite as the opposing team. Granite took two in a row from Bonneauville in the other series.

Greenmont, which had been declared "in" on the playoffs recently, was ruled "out" by President Johnny Grindler after Brushtown, winners of the regular league season honors, refused to play that team. The Greenmont team had been permitted to enter the playoffs after a series of incidents developed in securing the fourth place team for the playoffs.

Five runs in the top of the fourth inning sparked Brushtown to its triumph on Sunday. The winners pooled 13 hits off three Hunterstown hurlers. Lefty Murren, manager of Brushtown, gave but five hits and yielded all of the runs in the fourth inning. Lawrence rapped three singles for the victors while Kaiser secured two for Hunterstown.

Jim Hegan was the hitting star for the Indians as they overcame an early 3-0 deficit and won in the ninth inning. The big catcher, who earlier had driven in a run, opened the ninth with a single, his third hit. He moved to third on two bunts and scored on Bob Avila's long fly. Mike Garcia, who hurled the last two innings, picked up his 19th triumph.

A fourth-inning home run by Monte Irvin with one man on base was all Sal Maglie needed to whip the Dodgers as the New York right-hander became the first National league pitcher to record 20 victories. Cleveland's Bob Feller, with 22, is the only other big leaguer with 20 or more wins.

Wally Westlake batted in four runs with a single and homer to help the Cards hand his former Pittsburgh mates the second beating of the day. A tenth-inning single by Solly Hemus, followed by Red Schoendienst's double, won the opener.

Sports In Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Football

New York—Tennessee was voted country's No. 1 college football team in Associated Press pre-season poll.

Seattle—All-America back Don Heinrich of Washington university injured when tackled in practice and may be lost to team for six weeks or more.

Golf

Albany, N. Y.—Buck White, Greenwood, Miss., won $15,000 Empire State Golf tournament with 72-hole score of 284.

Carrollton, Ga.—Louise Suggs' 54-hole score of 221 beat Mrs. Mildred (Babe) Zaharias by one stroke in Carrollton Invitational Golf tourney.

Racing

New York—Alerted ($18.50) defeated Battlefield by a head in thrilling stretch duel in $22,450 discovery handicap at Aqueduct.

New York—Jimmy Jones, Calumet trainer, announced retirement of Coaltown, sprinter who formed stable's one-two punch with Citation.

IN PRO TOURNEY

Riley Heckert, golf pro at the Gettysburg Country club, and his partner, Ted Robertson, shot a gross 72 score in the first annual pro-members tournament Sunday at the Hershey Country club. Henry Williams, Jr., of the Berkleigh Country club, won individual honors with a two-under par 71.

Odd place names in New Mexico include White Tail, Water Flow, Turn, Tobogán, Tingle, Pep and Duviv.

List Favorites In National Amateur

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 10 (AP)—If you handicapped golfers the way you do race horses, the morning line on the 51st National Amateur Golf tournament, opening today, would list three short-odds favorites.

They are Jim McHale, Sam Urzetta and Frank Stranahan.

This is the consensus of the United States Walker Cup members, polled informally as they put in final practice whacks over the long, par 71 Saucon Valley Country club. The nine internationalists, all of them rated as outstanding contenders, also picked Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City; Dick Chapman of Pinehurst, N. C.; and Ted Bishop of Weston, Mass., as "good bets."

"Also don't overlook the dark horses," they warned. "This is a funny tournament and anybody can take it."

Their dark-horse nominations included Francis G. (Bo) Wimmer of Northfield, N. J., who made a good showing in the last National Open at Oakland Hills, Dae Morey of Martinsville, Ind., Bob Gardner of Los Angeles and Jack Munger of Dallas.

TURPIN READY FOR ROBINSON

Grossinger, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—If Sugar Ray Robinson intends to come out swinging against Middleweight Champion Randy Turpin on Wednesday night, there will be plenty of early fireworks at the Polo grounds.

"I shall be ready to meet him if he does that," said the cool, superbly conditioned Briton who rarely takes a backward step. "I feel confident of winning."

Robinson apparently has every intention of ending the 15-rounder as quickly as possible. In most of his training maneuvers, he has been firing from a flat-footed stance and with plenty of power.

A close friend of Sugar Ray said "He's going to get that guy quick or they're going to have to carry Ray out of there. He wants that title back more than anything else in the world."

"Robinson had better get him early, if he's ever going to get him," said Barney Ross, the former welterweight champion who has watched most of Turpin's workouts in this Catskill mountains resort.

In what was announced as his final boxing workout—Randy could change his mind—Turpin sparred three rounds each with Zack Hobbs, Billy Dockery and Eddie Phillips. He kept on top of them all the way in a workout, devoting most of his efforts to blocking and slipping punches. His muscular forearm seemed to be everywhere. Few blows got through his tight guard.

TANEYTOWN IS PEN-MAR CHAMP

A six-run rally in the seventh inning gave Taneytown a 12-5 victory over Fairfield in the playoff for the regular season championship of the Pen-Mar Baseball league Sunday afternoon at Taneytown. The teams had finished the regular season tied for first place.

The teams were deadlocked at 5-5 when Taneytown put on its big rally. Taneytown added another run in the eighth frame. Shantz poled a homerun for the winners.

Weikert and J. Sites divided the pitching for Fairfield while Gilbert and Shaffer twirled for Taneytown.

The Shaughnessy playoffs of the circuit will open next Sunday afternoon with third-place Littlestown playing at Taneytown and second-place Fairfield playing at McSherrystown. Both series will be of a best-of-three affair. The final series will also be on the best-of-three basis.

THURMONT WINS

Thurmont gained a 7-6 victory over the Littlestown baseball team in an exhibition game Sunday. The game was called in the sixth inning while Thurmont was at bat when "Lovie" Breighner, Littlestown catcher, suffered a dislocated finger on his right hand and Littlestown had no replacement for him.

SCHOOLBOY GRID WINNERS SHOW OLD TIME FORM

Harrisburg, Sept. 10 (AP)—Strong

contenders have asserted themselves already in Pennsylvania's three largest schoolboy football conferences but the defending champions continue their winning ways.

The 55-team Eastern conference largest of the state's dozen major grid groups, opened its season with 1950 titlist Coal township scoring an easy 21-0 win over Mt. Carmel.

Butler, only undefeated Class A team last year in the WPIAL, downed Kittanning, 15-0, in a non-league game that might indicate the defending champs have lost some of their steam. Kittanning is a Class A school.

Bellwood-Antis, 1950 winner in the Western conference, had enough power in its depleted ranks to turn back a strong Tyrone, 19-7. However, more impressive was Huntingdon's 26-6 victory over a veteran Conemaugh.

Farrell pulled the most impressive triumph in Class AA ranks of the WPIAL by upsetting strong Har-Brack, 19-6.

Other Results

A host of other strong contenders have shown themselves ready to challenge Butler. They include Altoona, with a 33-0 lacing of Mt. Union; McKeesport, which topped Glassport, 46-6; Johnstown, with a 25-6 win over German township; Ambridge's 29-6 decision of Tarentum; New Castle, 13-7 victor over Erie Academy; and Greensburg, which blanked Vandergrift, 27-0.

Coal township already has seen signs of power from Berwick, which smothered Hazle township, 52-0; Pottsville, 20-0 winner over Frackville; and Schuylkill Haven, which upset Ashland, 19-13.

The Section II conference of PIAA District 10 opened its first campaign with co-favorite Oil City taking a league victory over Tiusville, 24-13. Warren upset Corry, 13-6, in another league game while Meadville, the other co-favorite, took a 45-0 triumph over non-league Conneaut Valley.

Meanwhile, one 20-game victory streak was broken while another remained intact in opening night games. Leechburg of Armstrong county saw its skein stopped by Wilmerding, 31-12. Bell township of Westmoreland county ran its chain of victories to 21 by dropping East Pittsburgh, 25-6.

Westbury, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—Ferman Hanover set a new track record of 2:02 for a four-year-old gelding on a half mile track Saturday in winning the featured Rockville Centre pace for $5,000 at Roosevelt Raceway.

Ferman Hanover broke a record which had stood for 10 years. Senator Abbe was the former record-holder with a 2:02 4/5 mark made in Coshocton, Ohio, in 1941.

31,000 See Races At Williams Grove

Williams Grove, Pa., Sept. 10 (AP)—If Troy Ruttman doesn't set records at the raceway here he makes sure the man who beats him does.

The Ontario, Calif., driver last year set a new course record for 30-lap races with a mark of 13 minutes, 26 seconds on the half-mile track.

Yesterday he pushed Tommy Hinnerschitz of Reading all the way before Hinnerschitz beat him in the 30-lap Darwin Cooper sweepstakes before 31,000 fans. And when the dust settled, a new time record of 31 minutes, 21 seconds testified to their neck and neck battle. Jimmy Bryan of Phoenix, Ariz., wound up third ahead of Duke Nalon who was making his first appearance here since 1947.

The race was named after Darwin Cooper, 15-year-old Danville, Pa., youth who in July won the Soap Box Derby at Okron, O.

The Sunbury Giants defeated the Allentown Cardinals 6 to 4 yesterday, thereby eliminating the Cards from the Governors' cup playoffs.

By taking four out of seven games the Giants qualified to meet the Wilkes-Barre Blue Rocks in the championship tilt this week. Sunbury finished fourth in the regular season standings while Wilkes-Barre wound up in the third place, eliminated the pennant-winning Hagerstown Braves Saturday.

Carl Maloney the Giants' ace right-hander, pitched and batted his team to its victory. He held Allentown to seven hits, struck out three and rapped out three hits in four times at bat.

Tom Casagrande, Philadelphia Phillies' $50,000 bonus pitcher, hurled the Blue Rocks to a 4 to 3 triumph. He held the Braves to six hits, three of them in the ninth inning.

The Giants and the Blue Rocks start the final round of play tonight at Wilkes-Barre.

N. Y. Housewife Is New "Mrs. America"

Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP)—The hazel-eyed strawberry blonde New York city housewife who won the Mrs. America title yesterday says she has no ambition beyond her family.

Chosen over 32 other married beauties in a contest that measures homemaking talent equally with figure and face, 22-year-old Penny Duncan said it was exciting and unbelievable to win.

Her prizes include $7,500 in gifts and a tour of the eastern states in radio, TV and personal appearances like her predecessor, Mrs. Betty McAllister of Detroit, Mich., and then "No more contests," said Mrs. Duncan. "My career is my family and I'll just stay home with them."

Mrs. America of 1952 is the wife of Maynard Duncan, a student; and the mother of a two-year-old boy, Craig. She won the title after displaying her five feet 7 1/2 inches and 126 pounds in a fitted white bathing suit with straps.

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—Senator Morse (R-Ore.) today demanded a Senate inquiry into "reports of corruption" which he said cloud the Chinese Nationalist government's move to recall two of its military officials.

Morse told a reporter the two officials, said to be fighting the way to return to Formosa from Washington, should be given police sanctuary in this country pending the investigation he wants. He reportedly fear that would fire firing squad if they were not.

BRUSHTOWN TO MEET GRANITE IN BIG SERIES

Brushstown became a finalist in the Shaughnessy playoffs of the South Penn. Baseball league by crushing Hunterstown 10-3 on the latter field Sunday afternoon. The triumph gave Brushstown two straight triumphs in the best of three series with Hunterstown.

The two series will open next Sunday at Brushstown with Granite as the opposing team. Granite took two in a row from Booneville in the other series.

Greenlee, which had been declared out of the playoffs recently, was ruled "out" by President John J. Grader after Brushstown, winners of the regular league season honors, refused to play that team. The Greenlee team had been permitted to enter the playoffs after a series of incidents developed in securing the fourth place team for the playoffs.

Farmville, on the top of the fourth round, played Brushstown to its triumph Sunday. The winners pined 13 runs off three Hunterstown hurlers. Lefty Murren, manager of Brushstown, gave but five hits and yielded all of the runs in the fourth inning. Lawrence rapped three singles for the victors while Kaser secured two for Hunterstown.

20 To Receive Honors During Penna. Week

Harrisburg, Sept. 10 (AP)—Pennsylvania Week will take on special significance for 20 native sons and daughters who have achieved fame in their chosen fields when the Keystone state holds the annual observance from October 15 to 21.

The 20 persons will receive awards as Pennsylvania ambassadors at hometown ceremonies during the week, set aside every year to promote the state and its products.

The 20 were selected from a group of 90 nominations made by civic, commercial and service organizations by the state Chamber of Commerce.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The Democrats had their County Convention on Monday—and settled part of a ticket, as follows:

Assembly—Frederick Diehl; Commissioner—John Hanes; Auditor—David Wotter; Director—Wm. Dutera; Coroner—David C. Brinkerhoff.

They have volunteers, however, for all the other offices, except Clerk of the Court. None has yet announced himself for that office—so that our friend Norris is likely to walk over the course without opposition. The volunteer candidates are the following:

President Judge—Robert J. Fisher; Associates—Henry Myers, Samuel Miller; Prothonotary—Henry Bush; Register—Wm. F. Walter; Treasurer—Dr. C. N. Berluchy; Sheriff—Jesse Johns.

We presume none of these gentlemen calculate on election. Mr. Danner was appointed Delegate to the next State Convention.

Married: On the 4th inst., by the Rev. Jacob Ziegler, Mr. Daniel Lady, to Miss Rebecca Catharine Spangler—both of Straban township.

On the 4th inst., by the Rev. J. A. Murray, Rev. Wm. A. McKee, of Warrior's Mark, Huntingdon county, to Miss Mary Jane Stewart, daughter of Dr. Wm. R. Stewart, of York Springs, this county.

On the 8th inst., by the Rev. Jacob Ziegler, Mr. James Lane, to Miss Angeline Bowers—both of Mountjoy township.

Sudden Death: On Saturday evening a colored man, named Harman Kelly, who has been in declining health for some time, whilst walking through the yard at Mr. Wattles' hotel, in this borough, where he lived, was seized with a very profuse hemorrhage from the lungs, and died in a few minutes!

Died: On the 5th inst., John Henry, son of Mr. Jacob Rummel, of this borough, aged 9 years, 7 months and 16 days.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Death of E. B. Buehler: E. B. Buehler, Esq., a prominent member of the Gettysburg Bar, died at his residence in this place on Friday evening in the 66th year of his age. Mr. B. started in life without special educational advantages, other than those acquired by private study. After living in Hanover and Baltimore, he concluded to study law, came to Gettysburg, and entered the office of the late Hon. Daniel M. Smyser and was admitted to the Bar, Nov. 25, 1844. By close study, fidelity to clients, and patient industry, he soon reached a commanding position at the Bar, with a lucrative practice. His death produced a profound impression in the community.

At a regular meeting of the Adams County Medical Association the following officers were elected for the coming year: Dr. R. S. Seiss, of Littlestown, as President; Dr. R. B. Elderidge, of McKnightstown, and Dr. I. W. Pearson, of York Springs, Vice Presidents; Dr. Walter H. O'Neal, of Gettysburg, Recording Secretary; Dr. Wm. J. McClure, of New Oxford, Corresponding Secretary; Dr. E. W. Mumma, of Bendersville, Treasurer.

Married: Ginglel - Eacholtz. — In Littlestown, on the 5th inst., by Rev. M. Snyder, Mr. R. C. Ginglel, to Miss Annie C. Eacholtz, both of this county.

Mr. E. C. Taughinbaugh has retired from the "Century," and the paper will be conducted and edited by A. L. Heikes in the future.

Rev. J. W. Lake, of Littlestown, has been confined to the house since the 25th of August, with a severe attack of intermittent fever. We are happy to hear that he is now convalescing. He will not, however, be able to resume pastoral work for some time.

The Republican County Convention: The County Convention met in the Court House on Monday last. The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock, A.M., by J. A. Kitz-

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

PLUS
Remember when you were in school and you got an A Plus? What a thrill it gave you. The extra effort did it. And you were inspired to do that extra again. In the books that stock brokers make up, they grade the value of the different stocks—A, B, C, and when they merit a little higher rating they put a Plus sign after each letter.

Many years ago my friend Edna Ferber wrote a grand story which she called "Personality Plus." She wanted to bring out that her character had just a little more personality than the average. The Plus gave distinction, as it always does when added to anything.

You can Plus your entire life by continually adding to your interests, your friends, your good will, and your efficient ways. The winner in any athletic contest is that one who adds the Plus to his strength, or skill, and comes out above all the other contestants. It may be ever so small—perhaps only a nose, as in a horse race, but it's enough!

Anyone can add this Plus to whatever he may be doing. Getting the habit he keeps going forward, and is the inspirer of others. It's the will-to-win that keeps the Plus alive. I like the idea of trying always to surpass oneself. It's that little more than may be required that gives growth to the mind and to the soul, and which lifts a person to high ground and to places of distinction.

I recently read a definition of an expert, in a little book by Dr. William H. Hutchins, called "Discovering Wayside Treasures." It said: "An expert is a man who knows just that much more about his subject than his associates. Most of us are nearer the top than we think. We fail to realize how easy it is, how necessary it is to learn that fraction more."

In my library is a delightful and inspiring little volume called "Life's Little Extras" suggesting how the little things of life, when appreciated, add to the joy and happiness of our everyday lives. It is this little extra that people add to their work and their experience that often counts as the most important—the Plus triumph!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Passing Of The Attic."

LITTLE MISS BLUE JEANS
Little Miss Blue Jeans hates ribbons and laces;

Wants to wear trousers with cowboy red braces;
Doesn't like slippers and doesn't like dresses.

A notion that sadly her mother distresses.
Today she is sure there's no garment so classy

As blue jeans adorned with bright rivet heads brassy.

Bring out her frock and her nerves start to tremble.

It's cowboy Roy Rogers she wants to resemble.

In vain we may tell her, to parties invited

All little girls to look nice are delighted.

But little Miss Blue Jeans insists to her mother

She'd much rather go in the garb of her brother.

Home from the party, she wastes not a minute.

An outfit upstairs and she wants to be in it—

The clothes of a sheriff who daily must battle

With robbers of coaches and rustlers of cattle.

Complain? No, not I. In a few years my guess is Little Miss Blue Jean will beg for new dresses.

MISS MICKLEY TO ADDRESS CLUB

"Fall and Winter Table Decorations" will be the subject of the talk to be given by Miss Mary Jane Mickey, Adams county home economics extension representative, as guest speaker at the first fall meeting of the Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock in the P. O. S. of A. hall, East King street. The annual garden harvest display will also be held at the meeting. Each member is asked to contribute to the display and to price the articles for re-sale.

A hobby show will take place and each member is requested to participate in the show by bringing along one article for the show. Those composing the September program committee are Mrs. Cloy I. Crouse, chairman; Miss Edna Blocher, Miss Malva Dutera, Mrs. Edward H. Brown, Mrs. Stanley Horner, Mrs. George Mayers and Mrs. Nevaeh A. Crouse. The hostess committee consists of Mrs. Charles H. Fissel, chairman; Mrs. John H. Riley, Mrs. John N. Sell, Mrs. Orville C. Sentz, Miss Mary Rita Redding, Mrs. Edwin F. Stavelly and Mrs. Fred W. Blocher.

The first fall meeting of the Girl Scout Troop committee members and leaders of the Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scouts was held on Thursday evening in the engine house, at which time plans were discussed for Girl Scout Week and other activities. Girl Scout Week will begin Sunday, October 28, and the scouts will attend services at one of the community churches in a body, on the first day. Some special event is being planned for the girls every day during the week and it is also hoped to have a court of awards some time during the week.

Plans were made to have work tables installed in the meeting room in the near future. Mrs. John H. Riley was welcomed as a new troop committee member. Miss Harriet Badders, assistant leader of Troop 14, who served as chaperone for four senior scouts for a three-day camping program stressing civil defense at the Girl Scout camp at Pine Grove Furnace, gave a resume of the proceedings there. It was announced that one of the local troops will be given an ice cream party in the near future by the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce. The party is an award promised by the Jaycees for the troop which sold the largest amount of tickets to the second annual community music festival held in July under the sponsorship of the Jaycees. The organization will also present an award to Mary Ritter, a member of Troop 39, the individual scout selling the most tickets to the festival. The next meeting of the troop committee will be held Wednesday, October 24, at the engine house.

Auxiliary To Meet

The Ladies Auxiliary to Alpha Fire Company No. 1 will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening at 8 o'clock at the engine house. Those comprising the September entertainment and refreshment committee are Mrs. Katherine Flickinger, chairman, Mrs. Odette Strivig, Mrs. Carmen Slick and Mrs. Ruth Crouse.

The Junior choir of Grace Lutheran church, Two Taverns, will meet for rehearsal on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, as announced by Miss Evelyn K. Reaver, directress.

The first September meeting of the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the post home, East King street.

A Rotary Chest auction will be the feature of the evening at the regular meeting of the Littlestown club on Tuesday evening at 6:15 o'clock at Schottie's hotel, South Queen street. The program will be in charge of the Fellowship and Attendance committee consisting of A. W. Schott, chairman, Mervin Harner, Roy D. Knouse and Richard A. Little.

The members of the local Lions club have been invited to attend the fourth annual charter night celebration to be held by the Taneytown Lions on Tuesday evening at Basehor's restaurant, North Queen street. The Littlestown Lions are asked to bring a guest, as Ladies Night will be observed. Entertainment will be provided and Simpson P. Dougherty, Carlisle, will be the guest speaker.

The Youth class and the Willing Workers Sunday school class of St. Mary's Evangelical and Reformed church, Silver Run, will hold their combined monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Schaeffer, Westminster.

Lutheran church near Cashtown (Floh's) was dedicated with appropriate services, the pastor (Rev. P. Long) being assisted by Rev. P. Anstadt, of York, Rev. Dr. Steck and Rev. A. G. Fasnacht, of this place. The dedication services took place in the morning and at 3 p.m. a children's meeting was held. There was a balance of about $1,700 debt on the building, which we understand, was fully met by cash contributions and subscriptions.

Fatally Wounded By "Unloaded" Gun

John W. Stonesifer, 44, died at his home at Westminster R. 1, near Silver Run, at 8:10 p.m. Saturday as a result of a gun shot wound of the head. Mr. Stonesifer was handling a .22 caliber rifle, which he thought was unloaded, when it was accidentally discharged. The deceased is a son of J. Edward and Mary C. Cratin Stonesifer, Silver Run.

Surviving in addition to his wife, the former Edith Bowers, and his parents, are seven children: Carl, Janet, Eleanor, Richard, Glenn, Charlotte and Carla Jean, all at home. Two brothers and two sisters also survive: Joseph T. Stonesifer, Hanover; Harry M. Stonesifer, Union Mills; Mrs. Jacob Shorb, Pleasant Hill, and Mrs. Emma C. Beachtel, at home. Mr. Stonesifer was a farmer and lived on one of the A. W. Peeser company farms. He was a member of St. Mary's Lutheran church, Silver Run.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the J. W. Little and Son funeral home, Littlestown, with his pastor, the Rev. Dr. Frederick R. Seibel, officiating. Interment in St. Mary's Union cemetery, Silver Run. Friends may call at the funeral home this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

MILITARY BILL TO PASS TODAY

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—A record $61,103,856,030 military spending bill came up for action in the Senate today. No opposition was in sight, and leaders hoped for final passage by nightfall.

The giant sum—which figures out to about $400 for each man, woman and child in the country—is designed to provide the United States with more of the guns, tanks, aircraft and so on which administration leaders say is the best guarantee of world peace.

Especially, the bill carries more money for planes, and it includes a directive to build up the air force as rapidly as possible to a strength of 95 wings.

The Senate Appropriations committee which approved the big measure Friday added — over and above the amounts which President Truman sought and which the House voted — a special fund of $5,000,000,000 for navy and air force aviation.

Also in the measure is an unspecified amount to be spent on new weapons which the President has called "fantastic" and which various senators have termed "stupendous," "startling," "amazing" and "beyond imagination." The nature of these weapons is a carefully guarded secret, but senators have said they are not atomic and are not guided missiles.

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), floor manager for the big money bill, said "the real issue" is an expansion of U. S. air power until this country can demand that Soviet Russia decide between real peace and war.

Pilot Is Killed When Plane Crashes

Abington, Pa., Sept. 10 (AP)—A Philadelphia pilot lost his life and a woman passenger was seriously injured yesterday when their private plane crashed on a farm in lower Moreland township, Montgomery county, just outside Philadelphia city limits.

The pilot, Gerald C. Crockenberg, 45, was pronounced dead at Abington Memorial hospital while Mrs. Anna Hicks, 25, of Philadelphia, was treated there for a crushed chest.

Crockenberg, who owned the plane, took off from Northeast airport with Mrs. Hicks after promising her an airplane ride.

The pilot of a Civil Air Patrol plane which was flying in the area at the time reported that "there wasn't any doubt the pilot was trying for an emergency landing." He saw the Crockenberg plane level off and sail across a field before crashing.

Authorities gave no indication of the cause of the accident.

Says "Ike" May Be Persuaded To Run

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—Roy A. Roberts, president of the Kansas City Star, said yesterday Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower had told him he is "a good Kansas Republican, like all his forebears."

Roberts came up with that answer to Eisenhower's political affiliations during an NBC radio discussion. Eisenhower has never said publicly whether he is a Democrat or a Republican.

Roberts also said he thinks Eisenhower might be persuaded to run for the Presidency in 1952 and expressed doubt that President Truman will seek re-election.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP)—Miss Pennsylvania 1951, green-eyed, brunette, 18-year-old Clare Marie Lippert of Tarentum, says her five days as a contestant in the Miss America pageant "was the most wonderful experience I've had in my life."

Miss Lippert won no prizes but she told newsmen that she was proud to represent the Keystone state and when "I walked out as Pennsylvania's queen there was no one else who counted at all."

Give Your Garden A Drink When Top Soil Dries Out

Canvas hose which leaks through mesh spreads water evenly over garden.

Veteran gardeners have long practiced the maxim: Give a plant (or a garden) a drink when it's dry. In other words, do not keep the soil wet, but let it get thirsty between drinks.

In a lecture to florists, Dr. J. Boyd Page of Ohio State university gave a scientific view of the problem of watering, which indorsed this old gardener's maxim. A good soil holds both water and air at the same time, he said. These are held in spaces between the soil particles, called "pores."

When there is an excess of water, air is driven out, and the plants suffer for lack of it. This occurs in gardens when water stands on the surface; and is the reason why quick drainage of excess water is so important.

Lack of water, on the other hand, is also harmful to the plants. A balance between air and water must be maintained. A plant will make the best root growth, said Dr. Page, when it is drying the soil down. When the soil is soaked, and the excess drains away quickly, fresh air enters the soil to take the place of the water. The roots reach out for water as the supply diminishes, and vigorous growth results.

FACTS ABOUT CHRISTMAS CACTUS

Through the years readers have occasionally written the editor for information on how to handle the so-called Christmas or Crab cactus to force it into luxuriant bloom. We answered these random inquiries by personal letter, assuming there was not enough interest in the subject to justify special articles on it. But our opinion about limitations of interest was, however, drastically altered last fall when we offered an outline of cultural instructions to readers who wished to grow this old-fashioned indoor ornamental. The demand was astonishingly heavy.

From this editorial experience two main facts emerged: First, as a search of library shelves will indicate, little cultural information has been written on the subject; second, despite such a dearth of data, there is wide admiration for this plant, with many unexpressed demands for more practical knowledge about it.

Most botanists list the Christmas cactus as Zygocactus truncatus, although it is often called Epiphyllum truncatum. It is a native of Brazil where it grows as a parasitic plant on trunks of trees. In addition to the well known specimen we have long recognized among house plants, there are several color types and named hybrids.

From experience it is possible to judge that most failures to bring specimens into bloom under normal home conditions result from four general mistakes: (1) Lack of an annual rest for the old plant; (2) Dry air; (3) Too much direct sunshine especially when the rays are hot; (4) Too large pots, or in other words, absence of root-crowding.

Without available information on the subject it is evident that the soil should consist of sandy loam supplemented by fine, well rotted leafmold plus pulverized cow manure gathered dry from a summer pasture. The mixture should be carefully sifted together. Of course, like most tropical plants, this one demands good drainage.

Questionnaires to readers indicate that most growers succeed with the Christmas cactus in north windows, although several report success in southern exposures where shade is provided against too much direct sunshine. A large number kept their plants in east windows.

Temperatures should range in the lower to middle 60s rather than the middle and upper 70s. In a choice between fairly low temperatures with moist air and higher levels with dry air the lower range should be preferred. Obviously the chief objection to high temperatures is found in dry air and not alone in the temperature factor.

Plants should be watered from the bottom after flower buds appear. A thorough soaking once a week or as often as the soil is dry is safer than daily light sprinklings.

After flowers fade the plant should be given a rest undisturbed in a dark basement or cellar until late spring. Then it should be moved to a north porch for summer and watered only enough to prevent wilting. In early September it should be repotted with fresh soil and brought indoors. Many experienced growers merely replace the top soil at this stage without disturbing all the roots.

The editor will be glad to furnish interested readers a free copy of our growing instructions on receipt of a self-addressed, stamped envelope with request. Of course, all related questions are invited.

CULTURAL STEPS WITH PHLOX

Few other hardy ornamental plants are so deserving of a prominent place in the home grounds as perennial phlox, yet few flower growers consider this old favorite. It is indeed difficult to name a flower that grows so prolifically and blooms so long. Who can say that any other perennial flowers so freely through hot summer months?

There are three easy and satisfactory methods of propagating perennial phlox—by setting out rooted nursery plants in early autumn, by using root divisions from old clumps, and by cuttings started in early November from fleshy roots of old plants. Because strains do not come true to parent color from seed, beginners should not attempt to grow plants from seed.

There are scores of beautiful named varieties offered in nursery catalogues. Plants of these should be ordered at once for late September or early October delivery and planting.

The hardy perennial phlox is correctly listed as P. descussata. Beginners need not shy away from this botanical classification. "Descussata" merely refers to the particular leaf form of the species—opposite leaves in four rows up and down the stem, with alternate pairs at right angles. The perennial species known as Mountain Pink or Moss is listed as P. subulata. It is preferred for rock gardens or in rather dry sites as a beautiful flowering ground cover.

Phlox descussata demands a deeply mellow, well drained loam in all-day sunshine. Plenty of loam among the clumps and free circulation of air will, with these other advised conditions, reduce mildew dangers to a minimum. Not less than three feet each way between plants is not a waste of space.

Use of lime or wood ashes in soils for perennial phlox is unwise because the plant does best in a neutral or slightly acid soil reaction. One of the best forms of additional fertility is obtained by gathering dry cattle manure from a summer pasture and pulverizing it before working it uniformly through the top 8 inches of soil.

When old clumps begin to crowd or soil fertility begins to wane, division and replanting is advisable. This need may arise in four to six years after the original planting, depending on care; soil types and other factors. Division is a task for early March.

Root cuttings are started in early November from roots of one-year old plants. Roots are cut into 2-inch lengths and these are planted with upper ends up in a light sandy loam in a sunny coldframe. Cover them firmly to a depth of one-half inch and then coat the bed with loose straw or hay that will not pack down. Cover the bed with sash and ventilate during mild periods all winter. After top growth appears in late March the plants should not suffer from dryness even for a day or so.

This strange brushing of the hurricanes, the first in Miami Weather Bureau records, knocked much of the steam out of the big twisters. "Easy's" wind velocity fell to 100 miles per hour. The "Fox's" winds dropped from 100 to 80 miles an hour. Then the two sped swiftly away from the scene.

When Peter Stuyvesant was Dutch governor of New York, his authority also extended to Aruba and Bonaire, two Caribbean islands.

Asphalt mixed with rubber is said to make roads cheaper than when no rubber is used.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
The Democrats had their County Convention on Monday—and settled part of a Ticker, as follows:

Assembly—Frederick Dreihl; Commissioner—John Hanes, Auditor—David Wooten, Director—Wm. Dutera, Coroner—David C. Brinkerhoff.

They have volunteers, however, for all the other offices, except Clerk of the Court. None has yet announced himself for that office—so that our friend Norris is likely to walk over the course without opposition. The volunteer candidates are the following:

President Judge—Robert J. Fisher; Associates—Henry Myers, Samuel Miller; Prothonotary—Henry Bushy; Register—Wm. F. Walter; Treasurer—Dr. C. N. Berichy; Sheriff—Jesse Johns.

We presume none of these gentlemen calculate on election. Mr. Danner was appointed Delegate to the next State Convention.

Married: On the 4th inst., by the Rev. Jacob Ziegler, Mr. Daniel Lady, to Miss Rebecca Catharine Spangler—both of Suraban township.

On the 4th inst., by the Rev. J. A. Murray, Rev. Wm. A. McKee, of Warrior's Mark, Huntingdon county, to Miss Mary Jane Stewart, daughter of Dr. Wm. R. Stewart, of York Springs, this county.

On the 8th inst., by the Rev. Jacob Ziegler, Mr. James Lane, to Miss Angeline Bowers—both of Mountjoy township.

Sudden Death: On Saturday evening a colored man, named Harman Kelly, who has been in declining health for some time, whilst walking through the yard at Mr. Wattles' hotel, in this borough, where he lived, was seized with a very profuse hemorrhage from the lungs, and died in a few minutes!

Died: On the 3th inst., John Henry, son of Mr. Jacob Rummel, of this borough, aged 9 years, 7 months and 16 days.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Death of E. B. Buehler: F. B. Buehler, Esq., a prominent member of the Gettysburg Bar, died at his residence in this place on Friday evening in the 66th year of his age. Mr. B. started in life without special educational advantages other than those acquired by private study. After living in Hanover and Baltimore, he concluded to study law, came to Gettysburg and entered the office of the late Hon. Daniel M. Smyser and was admitted to the Bar Nov. 25, 1844. By close study, fidelity to clients, and patient industry, he soon reached a commanding position at the Bar with a lucrative practice. His death produced a profound impression in the community.

At a regular meeting of the Adams County Medical Association, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Dr. R. S. Skelton, Gettysburg, Pa., President; Dr. R. B. Ederman, of McKeesport, and Dr. T. W. Pearson, of York Springs, Vice Presidents; Dr. Wm. H. O'Neal, of Gettysburg, Past President; Dr. W. J. McGinnis, of New Oxford, Corresponding Secretary; Dr. F. W. Muller, of Berks, Recording Secretary.

Married: George E. Feltz, of Littlestown, to Miss Mary E. Barker, of York, on the 4th inst.

Mr. F. C. Taughnbaugh has returned from the District of Columbia, where he has been on a tour of inspection.

Rev. J. W. Lake of Littlestown, has been confined to his home since the 25th of August with a severe attack of influenza. We are happy to hear that his convalescence is progressing favorably.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

PLUS
Remember when you were in school and you got an A Plus? What a thrill it gave you. The extra effort did it. And you were inspired to do that extra again. In the books that stock brokers make up, they grade the value of the different stocks—A, B, C, and when they merit a little higher rating they put a Plus sign after each letter.

Many years ago my friend Edna Ferber wrote a grand story which she called "Personality Plus." She wanted to bring out that her character had just a little more personality than the average. The Plus gave distinction, as it always does when added to anything.

You can Plus your entire life by continually adding to your interests your friends, your good will, and your efficient ways. The winner in any athletic contest is that one who adds the Plus to his strength, or skill, and comes out above all the other contestants. It may be ever so small—perhaps only a nose, as in a horse race, but it's enough!

Anyone can add this Plus to whatever he may be doing. Getting the habit he keeps going forward, and is the inspirer of others. It's the will-to-win that keeps the Plus alive. I like the idea of trying all ways to surpass oneself. It's that little more than may be required that gives growth to the mind and to the soul, and which lifts a person to high ground and to places of distinction.

I recently read a definition of an expert, in a little book by Dr. William N. Hutchins, called "Discovering Wayside Treasures." It said: "An expert is a man who knows just that much more about his subject than his associates. Most of us are nearer the top than we think. We fail to realize how easy it is, how necessary it is to learn that fraction more."

In my library is a delightful and inspiring little volume called "Life's Little Extras" suggesting how the little things of life, when appreciated, add to the joy and happiness of our everyday lives. It is this little extra that people add to their work and their experience that often counts as the most important—the Plus triumph!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject "The Passing Of The Attic."

LITTLE MISS BLUE JEANS
Little Miss Blue Jeans hates ribbons and laces:

Wants to wear trousers with cowboy red braces:
Doesn't like slippers and doesn't like dresses.

A notion that sadly her mother dis-trusts.

Today she is sure there's no garment so classy

As blue jeans adorned with bright rivet heads brassy.

Bring out her frock and her nerves start to tremble.

It's cowboy Roy Rogers she wants to resemble.

In rain we may tell her, to parties invited

All little girls to look nice are delighted.

But little Miss Blue Jeans insists to her mother

She'd much rather go in the garb of her brother.

Home from the party, she wastes not a minute.

An outfit's upstairs and she wants to be in it—

The clothes of a sheriff who daily must battle

With robbers of coaches and rustlers of cattle.

Complain! No, not I. In a few years my guess is Little Miss Blue Jean will beg for new dresses.

MISS MICKLEY TO ADDRESS CLUB

Fall and Winter Table Decorations will be the subject of the talk to be given by Miss Mary Jane Mickley, Adams county home economics extension representative, as guest speaker at the first fall meeting of the Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock in the P. O. S. of A. hall, East King street. The annual garden harvest display will also be held at the meeting. Each member is asked to contribute to the display and to price the articles for re-sale.

A hobby show will take place and each member is requested to participate in the show by bringing along one article for the show. Those composing the September program committee are Mrs. Cloy I. Crouse, chairman, Miss Edna Blocher, Miss Malva Dutera, Mrs. Edward H. Brown, Mrs. Stanley Horner, Mrs. George Mayers, and Mrs. Nevaeh A. Crouse. The hostess committee consists of Mrs. Charles H. Fassel, chairman; Mrs. John H. Riley, Mrs. John N. Sell, Mrs. Orville C. Sentz, Miss Mary Rita Redding, Mrs. Edwin F. Staveland and Mrs. Fred W. Blocher.

The first fall meeting of the Girl Scout Troop committee members and leaders of the Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scouts was held on Thursday evening in the engine house, at which time plans were discussed for Girl Scout Week and other activities. Girl Scout Week will begin Sunday, October 28, and the scouts will attend services at one of the community churches in a body, on the first day. Some special event is being planned for the girls every day during the week and it is also hoped to have a court of awards some time during the week.

Plans were made to have work tables installed in the meeting room in the near future. Mrs. John H. Riley was welcomed as a new troop committee member. Miss Harriet Badders, assistant leader of Troop 14, who served as chaperone for four senior scouts for a three-day camping program stressing civil defense at the Girl Scout camp at Pine Grove Furnace, gave a resume of the proceedings there. It was announced that one of the local troops will be given an ice cream party in the near future by the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce. The party is an award promised by the Jaycees for the troop which sold the largest amount of tickets to the second annual community music festival held in July under the sponsorship of the Jaycees. The organization will also present an award to Mary Ritter, a member of Troop 39, the individual scout selling the most tickets to the festival. The next meeting of the troop committee will be held Wednesday, October 24, at the engine house.

Fatally Wounded By "Unloaded" Gun

John W. Stonesifer, 44, died at his home at Westminister R. 1, near Silver Run, at 8:10 p.m. Saturday as a result of a gun shot wound of the head. Mr. Stonesifer was handling a .22 caliber rifle, which he thought was unloaded, when it was accidentally discharged. The deceased is a son of J. Edward and Mary C. Cratin Stonesifer, Silver Run.

Surviving in addition to his wife, the former Edith Bowers, and his parents, are seven children: Carl, Janet, Eleanor, Richard, Glenn, Charlotte and Carla Jean, all at home. Two brothers and two sisters also survive: Joseph T. Stonesifer, Union Mills; Mrs. Jacob Shorb, Pleasant Hill, and Mrs. Emma C. Bechtel, at home. Mr. Stonesifer was a farmer and lived on one of the A. W. Peeser company farms. He was a member of St. Mary's Lutheran church, Silver Run.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the J. W. Little and Son funeral home, Littlestown, with his pastor, the Rev. Dr. Frederick R. Seibel, officiating. Interment in St. Mary's Union cemetery, Silver Run. Friends may call at the funeral home this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—A record $61,103,656,000 military spending bill came up for action in the Senate today. No opposition was in sight, and leaders hoped for final passage by nightfall.

The giant sum—which figures out to about $400 for each man, woman and child in the country—is designed to provide the United States with more of the guns, tanks, aircraft and so on which administration leaders say is the best guarantee of world peace.

Especially, the bill carries more money for planes, and it includes a directive to build up the air force as rapidly as possible to a strength of 95 wings.

The Senate Appropriations committee which approved the big measure Friday added — over and above the amounts which President Truman sought and which the House voted — a special fund of $5,000,000,000 for navy and air force aviation.

Also in the measure is an unspecified amount to be spent on new weapons which the President has called "fantastic" and which various senators have termed "stupendous," "startling," "amazing" and "beyond imagination." The nature of these weapons is a carefully guarded secret, but senators have said they are not atomic and are not guided missiles.

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), floor manager for the big money bill, said "the real issue" is an expansion of U. S. air power until this country can demand that Soviet Russia decide between real peace and war.

Pilot Is Killed When Plane Crashes

Abington, Pa., Sept. 10 (AP)—A Philadelphia pilot lost his life and a woman passenger was seriously injured yesterday when their private plane crashed on a farm in lower Moreland township, Montgomery county, just outside Philadelphia city limits.

The pilot, Gerald C. Crockenberg, 45, was pronounced dead at Abington Memorial hospital while Mrs. Anna Hicks, 25, of Philadelphia, was treated there for a crushed chest.

Crockenberg, who owned the plane, took off from Northeast airport with Mrs. Hicks after promising her an airplane ride.

The pilot of a Civil Air Patrol plane which was flying in the area at the time reported that "there wasn't any doubt the pilot was trying for an emergency landing." He saw the Crockenberg plane level off and sail across a field before crashing.

Authorities gave no indication of the cause of the accident.

Says "Ike" May Be Persuaded To Run

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—Roy A. Roberts, president of the Kansas City Star, said yesterday Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower would him be a good Kansas Republican, and as his forebear.

Roberts came up with that answer to Eisenhower's question, "What do you think of my running for the Presidency in 1952 and expressing your opinion?" President Truman took no objection.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP)—Miss Pennsylvania 1951 green-eyed, brunette 18-year-old Clare Marie Lippert of Tazewell says her five days as a contestant in the Miss America pageant was the most wonderful experience she had in her life.

Miss Lippert won 15 prizes but she told newsmen that he was proud to represent the Keystone state and when "I walked out as Pennsylvania's queen there was no one else who counted at all."

Give Your Garden A Drink When Top Soil Dries Out

Canvas hose which leaks through mesh spreads water evenly over garden.

Veteran gardeners have long practiced the maxim: Give a plant or a garden a drink when it's dry. In other words, do not keep the soil wet, but let it get thirsty between drinks.

In a lecture to florists, Dr. J. Boyd Page of Ohio State university gave a scientific view of the problem of watering, which indorsed this old gardeners' maxim.

A good soil holds both water and air at the same time, he said. These are held in spaces between the soil particles, called "pores." When there is an excess of water, air is driven out, and the plants suffer for lack of it. This occurs in gardens when water stands on the surface, and is the reason why quick drainage of excess water is so important.

Lack of water, on the other hand, is also harmful to the plants. A balance between air and water must be maintained. A plant will make the best root growth said Dr. Page, when it is drying the soil down. When the soil is soaked, and the excess drains away quickly, fresh air enters the soil to take the place of the water. The roots reach out for water as the supply diminishes, and vigorous growth results.

FACTS ABOUT CHRISTMAS CACTUS

Through the years readers have occasionally written the editor for information on how to handle the so-called Christmas or Crab cactus to force it into luxuriant bloom. We answered these random inquiries by personal letter, assuming there was not enough interest in the subject to justify special articles on it. But our opinion about limitations of interest was, however, drastically altered last fall when we offered an outline of cultural instructions to readers who wished to grow this old-fashioned indoor ornamental. The demand was astonishingly heavy.

From this editorial experience two main facts emerged. First, as a search of library shelves will indicate, little cultural information has been written on the subject, second, despite such a dearth of data, there is wide admiration for "this plant" with many unexpressed demands for more practical knowledge about it.

Most botanists list the Christmas cactus as Zygocactus truncatus, although it is often called Ephippium truncatum. It is a native of Brazil where it grows as a parasitic plant on trunks of trees. In addition to the well known specimen we have long recognized among house plants, there are several score types and named hybrids.

From experience it is possible to judge that most failures to bring specimens into bloom under normal home conditions result from four general mistakes: (1) Lack of an annual rest for the old plant. (2) Dry air. (3) Too much direct sunshine especially when the rays are hot. (4) Too large pots or in other words, absence of root-crowding.

Without available information on the subject it is evident that the soil should consist of sandy loam supplemented by fine, well rotted leafmold plus pulverized cow manure gathered dry from a summer pasture. The mixture should be carefully sifted together. Of course, like most tropical plants, this one demands good drainage.

Questionnaires to readers indicate that most growers succeed with the Christmas cactus in north windows, although several report success in southern exposures where shade is provided against too much direct

Dr. Page's explanation makes it clear why an alternating cycle of thorough watering, and a period of drying out should be followed.

But watering should be thorough enough to wet the soil as deep as the roots go, at least. This cannot be done by sprinkling a brief period every day; that is bad watering practice because it moistens only the top few inches of soil, and encourages root growth near the surface where the soil dries out quickly. The soil must be soaked deeply whenever rainfall is insufficient to provide abundant water. That means, when less than one inch each week falls on the garden in summer time.

Let the hose run without a sprinkler, so that the water falls upon a board which scatters it and prevents washing out a gully, or use a canvas hose which leaks all along its length, and serves as a portable irrigation ditch.

In growing melons and tomatoes, many amateurs find that by sinking a tile into the ground near each hill, before the seed is sown, they can simplify the task of watering. Water poured into the tile is carried immediately down to the deepest roots, and this often results in exceptional growth.

rectly listed as P. decussata. Beginning not shy away from this botanical classification. "Decussate" merely refers to the particular leaf form of the species—opposite leaves in four rows up and down the stem, with alternate pairs at right angles.

The perennial species known as Mountain Pink or Moss is listed as P. subulata. It is preferred for rock gardens or in rather dry sites as a beautiful flowering ground cover.

Phlox decussata demands a deeply meadow, well drained loam in all-day sunshine. Plenty of loam among the clumps and free circulation of air will, with these other advised conditions, reduce mildew dangers to a minimum. Not less than three feet each way between plants is not a waste of space.

Use of lime or wood ashes in soils for perennial phlox is unwise because the plant does best in a neutral or slightly acid soil reaction. One of the best forms of additional fertility is obtained by gathering dry cattle manure from a summer pasture and pulverizing it before working it uniformly through the top 8 inches of soil.

When old clumps begin to crowd or soil fertility begins to wane, division and replanting is advisable. This need may arise in four to six years after the original planting, depending on care, soil types and other factors. Division is a task for early March.

Root cuttings are started in early November from roots of one-year old plants. Roots are cut into 2-inch lengths and these are planted with upper ends up in a light sandy loam, in a sunny coldframe. Cover them firmly to a depth of one-half inch and then coat the bed with loose straw or hay that will not pack down. Cover the bed with sash and ventilate during mild periods all winter. After top growth appears in late March the plants should not suffer from dryness even for a day or so.

POSTAL RATES INCREASE BILL SENT TO HOUSE

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—The cost of sending a letter would go up from three to four cents under a postal rate increase bill passed by the Senate Friday night and sent to the House.

The measure also would make the penny postcard only a memory, raise airmail rates and boost charges on other types of mail in an effort to swell the post office department's revenues around $400,000,000 a year. Even so the department would be left in the red.

And it was only because the Senate wrangled so long over the rate increase bill that it failed to hike the pay of postal workers slightly more than $200,000,000 a year.

Pay Raises Must Wait
Senators had hoped to whip through an 8.8 percent salary increase for postal employees on Friday, but at the end of Friday's session Majority Leader McFarland of Arizona said it now would have to wait until other top-priority legislation is out of the way.

By a vote of 36 to 24, the Senate adopted an amendment of Senator Long (D-La.) making a 60 per cent increase in the postal rates for magazines over a three-year period. Staff members of the committee estimated the effect, money-wise, would be to bring in an additional $6,000,000 a year when the full 60 per cent increase took hold.

The department's biggest yield would come from raising the rate on first-class (sealed) letters from three to four cents. The change would bring in an estimated $200,000,000.

Other Increases
The upping of the charge on postcards from one to two cents was expected to add $44,136,000 to postal revenues.

The committee estimated that the higher rate on air mail, from six to eight cents, would increase postal revenues by $16,768,000. Higher rates for third-class mail were expected to account for an extra $35,000,000 after a graduated two-year increase.

Rates on fourth-class mail (large parcel post) would be raised about $63,011,000 a year, while increased charges for special delivery letters, registered mail and other special services would bring in some $26,353,000.

Turnpike Speed Cut, More Police Urged

Harrisburg, Sept. 10 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike commission is considering proposals by safety experts to reduce the 70-mile an hour speed limit on the state's famed toll road and step up police patrols. The suggestions were offered more frequently than any others at the concluding session yesterday of the commission's "users conference."

J. Maxwell Smith, president of the Keystone Automobile club, told the group that "the higher the speed the more certain the death."

"Motorists seeing police on the highways would be discouraged from driving practices which cause accidents," he said.

Commissioner Edward N. Jones, conference chairman, declared that "speed is not the basic cause of the safety problem on our highway."

Regarding the suggestion for more police patrols, he said it cost the commission an estimated $10,000 annually for each state police officer assigned to the turnpike. He said one solution might be to authorize turnpike employees to order unsafe drivers and vehicles from the high speed road.

The 120-member GOP House majority was called into a special caucus to make a new try at agreement on a series of levies to raise $138,000,000 in the next two years.

As the House Republicans met there were hints of a split in the Senate Democratic leadership over the long disputed income tax. Democrats have solidly opposed the levy.

Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, said it might be necessary to pass the income tax to avoid a breakdown of financial support to schools and state-aided institutions.

But Sen. John J. Haluska, the Democratic Senate whip, disagreed with Dent. Haluska said he would continue to oppose the levy and that Dent was talking only for himself and not for the Democratic party.

The closed session of House Republicans represented the latest effort to break a tax deadlock that has kept the 1951 Legislature in session longer than any other since colonial days.

GROMYKO PLOT STILL MYSTERY

San Francisco, Sept. 10 (AP)—"L'affaire Gromyko" remained a mystery today. Officials who might know refused to say whether they thought it was a fantastic plot to kill the Russian diplomat, or an equally fantastic coincidence.

Police were tipped Thursday night that White Russians were going to kill Andrei Gromyko Friday morning as the Soviet delegation to the Japanese peace conference sped along busy Bayshore boulevard.

The novel and unromantic weapon: a beer truck, to be rammed into Gromyko's automobile.

The Russian delegation was informed. Members showed no alarm, only curiosity.

The group left suburban Hillsborough 25 minutes later than usual Friday morning, preceded, followed and flanked by state highway patrol cars. The caravan followed a circuitous route to Bayshore, then sped north toward San Francisco.

Sure enough, just outside the city line was an overturned truck, its wheel still spinning in the air. It carried bacon instead of beer. And right behind it were two beer trucks — snarled up in the traffic jam. State highway patrolmen took a quick look, then waved the delegation and its entourage on to the conference. The limousines whizzed past at nearly 70 miles an hour. Gromyko was at his seat in the San Francisco Memorial opera house on schedule.

Authorize Boost In Price Of Cars

Detroit, Sept. 8 (AP)—Higher price tags for most lines of the nation's new passenger cars were being figured out today.

Some of the boosts, expected to run from about $65 on the lowest priced cars to as much as $250 on higher priced models, probably will be effective by the end of next week.

Authorization to make the increase under a complicated formula that would raise prices an estimated five to six per cent was given the industry on Friday by the Office of Price Stabilization.

By the time retail dealers are allowed to apply their profit margins, ranging from 15 to 30 per cent, it is estimated that the total boost might go as high as eight per cent over current list prices.

Further price increases also are possible, the OPS order indicated.

Grand Jury Indicts Pennsy Engineer

Norristown, Pa., Sept. 10 (AP)—The engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad train which rammed another passenger train at Bryn Mawr, Pa., last May 18 killing eight and injuring 63, has been indicted by the Montgomery county grand jury.

means Performance plus... maintenance minus!

There are many things to look for, in a modern power plant, and the most important of all is... the name of its maker.

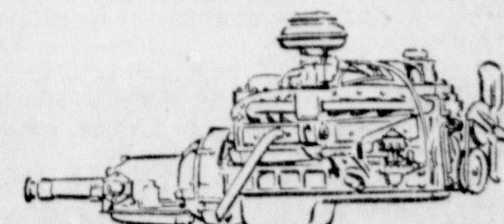

In Packard's case, that stands for the company with the broadest range of power-building experience of any single automobile manufacturer in the world.

That explains why Packard is known throughout the world as "America's Master Motor Builders"... and why today's new Packard Thunderbolt engines offer you the best all-around combination of silent smoothness... efficiency... and service-free durability. Specifically, they give you the peak efficiency of the highest compression ratios in the full-size passenger car field—and the service-free simplicity of a special Packard design with up to 25% fewer working parts than in engines of comparable power.

And durability? Packard holds the greatest durability record in the industry. Fact: Of all the Packards built, in the last 52 years, over 50% are still in service... and many of them have rolled up individual records of over a half million miles.

Precision-built by America's Master Motor Builders: This new Packard Thunderbolt Engine is America's highest-compression eight. Horsepower ratings range from 135 to 155.

PACKARD THUNDERBOLT POWER

means Performance plus...maintenance minus!

There are many things to look for, in a modern power plant, and the most important of all is . . . the name of its maker.

In Packard's case, that stands for the company with the broadest range of power-building experience of any single automobile manufacturer in the world.

That explains why Packard is known throughout the world as "America's Master Motor Builders" . . . and why today's new Packard Thunderbolt engines offer you the best all-around combination of silent smoothness . . . efficiency . . . and service-free durability.

Specifically, they give you the peak efficiency of the highest compression ratios in the full-size passenger car field—and the service-free simplicity of a special Packard design with up to 25 . . . fewer working parts than in engines of comparable power.

And durability? Packard holds the greatest durability record in the industry. Fact: Of all the Packards built, in the last 52 years, over 90 per cent will be running—and many of them have rolled up individual records of over a half million miles.

Precision-built by America's Master Motor Builders, the new Packard Thunderbolt Engine is America's first compression engine. Horsepower ratings range from 125 to 155.

It's more than a car—it's a PACKARD

Miss Utah, newly acclaimed Miss America, is crowned by Yolande Betheze, Miss America of 1951, at finale of the annual Miss America pageant in Atlantic City, N. J. Miss America of 1952 is Colleen Kay Hutchins of Salt Lake City, 25 years old, five feet, ten inches tall, and weighs 143 pounds.

"MISSUTAH" NEW CHOSEN BEAUTY QUEEN FOR 1952

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP)—Miss America of 1952, a Sunday school teacher who doesn't smoke or drink, didn't believe it when she was chosen queen over 30 other contestants.

"I thought I was too darned tall," said blue-eyed Colleen Kay Hutchins of Salt Lake City, Utah, as she straightened the crown on her pretty blonde hair.

Colleen's family was just as surprised. Her mother telephoned her from California after the announcement of her triumph Saturday night and asked: "Well, dear, whatever did you win it with?"

She's Oldest Queen Colleen weighs 143 pounds, is five feet 10 inches tall, measures 36 inches at the bust and hips and tapers down to a svelte 24 inches at the waist. The same bust, hips and waist were measured on Mrs. Penny Duncan of New York city yesterday at Asbury Park when she won the title of Mrs. America.

The queen of the married lovelies is also a blonde, three years younger than Miss America, two and one-half inches shorter and weighs 126. Mrs. Duncan is the wife of a student and the mother of a two-year-old son.

At 25, Miss Hutchins is the oldest to wear the Miss America crown and matches the record height of Miss America of 1945, Bess Myerson of New York city. Colleen is the first blonde to win the title in 13 years.

No Marriage Plans She is not bothered by the pageant rule that she cannot marry for the next year. Although she says boy friends have been no problem despite her height, there is no one special at the moment.

A chance at serious drama is her goal but Colleen thinks that marriage and a career do mix. She won the judges' eyes capturing a pageant preliminary with a selection from Maxwell Anderson's "Elizabeth the Queen."

The Miss America title gives Colleen a $5,000 scholarship, numerous gifts including a chance at the $30,000 earnings chalked up by last year's queen, Miss Yolande Betheze of Mobile, Ala.

Runners-up to Miss America in the order they placed were Miss Indiana, Carol Mitchell of Rochester; Miss North Carolina, Lu Long Ogburn of Smithfield; Miss Arkansas, Charlotte Simmen of Little Rock, and Miss Florida, Mary Elizabeth Godwin of Gainesville.

How Pa. Senators Voted Last Week

Washington, Sept. 10 (AP)—Pennsylvania's two Republican senators differed last week over cuts in the foreign aid bill, Senator Martin voting for reduction in two instances and Senator Duff voting against them.

On an amendment by Senator Dirksen (R-Ill.) to reduce by $5,000,000 the fund for economic assistance, Martin voted yes and Duff no. The amendment was defeated 41 to 51.

On another amendment by Dirksen to reduce the amount by $250,000,000, Martin again voted yes and Duff no. This amendment was adopted 36 to 24.

An amendment to reduce the amount for military aid to Europe by $37,000,000 was adopted 42 to 25 with Martin voting yes and Duff absent.

On final passage 61 to 5 of the trimmed down foreign aid bill authorizing $7,286,250,000 Martin voted yes. Duff was absent but it was announced that he would have voted yes if he had been present.

Mexico City is sinking into the ancient lake bed on which it was built and sanitary engineers have warned that the flow of the sewer system will be reversed if it continues to sink.

When the Spanish Conquistadors first reached Mexico City it was a series of villages built over the waters of a lake.

Highlights Of Peace Treaty

San Francisco, Sept. 10 (AP)—Highlights of the Japanese peace treaty are:

Peace

Ends the state of war between Japan and the Allied powers; recognizes the full sovereignty of Japan after six years as an occupied country.

Territory

Japan recognizes the independence of Korea; renounces claim to the Kurile islands, Formosa and the Pescadores, the Spratly and Paracel islands and Pacific islands now under UN trusteeship.

Agrees to UN trusteeship of the Ryukyu (Okinawa) and Daito islands; the Bonins, Rosario Island and the Volcano islands; and Parece Vela and Marcus island.

Disposition of Japanese property in these islands is left to negotiations between Japan and present administering authorities.

Security

Japan agrees to settle its international disputes by peaceful means; and to live by the principles of the United Nations.

All occupation forces to be withdrawn from Japan as soon as possible—not later than 90 days after the treaty signing.

Political-Economic

"Nothing in this provision shall, however, prevent the stationing or retention of foreign armed forces in Japanese territory" by agreement with one or more of the Allied powers.

Japan accepts the judgments of the International Military Tribunal and other Allied war crimes courts; the decision on clemency powers is left to the Allied governments.

Japan declares its readiness to negotiate trade and maritime agreements with Allied powers, according to their most-favored-nation treatment.

Claims And Property

Provides for reparations to war-occupied countries through (1) goods to be manufactured by Japan from raw materials supplied by those nations and (2) services.

Allows the Allies to retain seized Japanese property, with some exceptions.

Japan, within six months, must return any Allied property seized there; it also recognizes Allied industrial, literary and artistic property rights.

Japan agrees to indemnify Allied prisoners of war who suffered undue hardships; it waives all claims against the Allies arising out of the war.

Differences over interpretation of the treaty not otherwise settled to be referred to the International Court of Justice.

CORRECT ADDRESS

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 10 (AP)—Baggage officials at the Seattle port of embarkation looked twice at a footlocker bound for overseas to make certain they had read the return address correctly. They had. The address: Lt. R. H. Dubois, 211 E. Dubois Avenue, Dubois, Pa.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP)—Gulping down 199 raw clams in 20 minutes won postal clerk John J. Staines a champion's title yesterday. He out-swallowed "Izzy" Weintraub, a 200-pound jitney driver who had been champ clam-eater for the past seven years, in the contest sponsored by the city. Weintraub, who could take only 143 clams in 20 minutes, said he had no excuses. "I just can't eat as much as that guy," he sighed.

SERVICES OFFERED

Littlestown SCHOOL PATROL ORGANIZED BY CHIEF MILLER

Pupil patrols of both the public and parochial schools have been organized during the past week by Chief of Police Albert H. Miller, Jr. Members include: Public school, Gloria Purgon, captain; Barbara Crouse, first lieutenant; Shirley Hoff, Carolyn Brown, William Renner, Larry White, Douglas Leatherman, Mary Ritter, Jean Kroust, Paul Snyder and Robert Blevins; parochial school, Robert Rexroth, captain; James O. Kress, first lieutenant; Lawrence Ernst, John Busbey and Robert Orndorff.

At the Sunday morning worship service at Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed church, the pastor, Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, spoke on the subject, "Never Say 'Hopeless'." The anthem, sung by the Senior choir, was the Crusaders' hymn, "Beautiful Saviour," accompanied by Miss Shirley Gobrecht, church organist. Announcements made by the Rev. Reynolds included the September meeting of the teachers of the children's Sunday school department, to be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John E. Staunbaugh, M street, with Mrs. J. Everett Feesser, acting as co-hostess.

The Ladies' Aid society of Redeemer's church will hold its first fall meeting on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the social hall of the church. The Senior choir will hold its regular weekly rehearsal Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Dedicate Home Addition
An addition to the Homewood Reformed Church Home for the Aged at Hagerstown will be dedicated on Saturday, September 15. The dedication service will be held at 2 p.m. at which time Rev. Allen S. Meek, president of the Lancaster Theological seminary, will be the speaker. If enough people from Redeemer's church signify their intentions of attending the dedication a bus will be secured to go to Hagerstown. Those wishing to go should contact Rev. Reynolds, Sunday, September 16, the first anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone at Homewood will be celebrated. The Rev. Charles Enders will be the guest speaker at a program to be held at 3 p.m. A teachers' conference for workers in the children's Sunday school departments of the Reformed church will be held on Sunday, September 16, at Grace Reformed church, Hanover. The conference will begin at 2:30 p.m. and those attending are asked to bring a box lunch and stay for the evening session.

Harvest Home Service
The festival of the Harvest Home will be celebrated at Redeemer's church on Sunday, September 23, at the morning worship service. All food to be displayed should be brought to the church by 4 p.m. the preceding Saturday so the committee can arrange it. As is the custom, donors are asked to label the food so the committee can deliver it following the worship. The food may be contributed to the Hoffman Orphanage, Homewood, the parsonage, a friend or returned to the donor. A special offering will be received at this service for the newly constructed buildings at Homewood, Hagerstown.

The Mercersburg Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed church will meet on Tuesday, September 25, at St. John's church, Chambersburg. All members of the congregation of Redeemer's church has been invited to attend. Those wishing to go should register with the pastor. Cars will leave for Chambersburg at 8 a.m. from the church and return at 6 p.m.

A convocation on churchmanship will be held at Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church, Gettysburg, Sunday, September 30, beginning at 3:30 p.m., with Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox as the host pastor. A cafeteria supper will be served at the church so that all can stay for the evening sermon. Jesse M. Bader, a nationally known speaker, will deliver the main address.

Plan Rally Day
Rally day will be observed at Redeemer's Sunday school at 9:30 a.m., Sunday, September 30. Samuel H. Higginbotham, superintendent of the adult department, will present the Rally day address. Preparatory service for the fall World Wide Communion will be held at the 10:30 a.m. worship service on September 30, and Holy Communion will be administered on Sunday, October 7.

The Children's Department of Redeemer's Church school will hold a public chicken and oyster supper on Saturday, October 6, between 4 and 8 p.m., in the social hall.

The Young Women's Missionary society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will hold its first organized meeting on Tuesday evening at 7:30

Littlestown

Littlestown — The Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan announced at the Sunday morning masses at St. Aloysius church that the annual Fort Hours devotions will begin on Sunday, September 16, at 10 a.m. mass, with a Jesuit priest as the celebrant. Sunday evening devotions will be at 7 o'clock.

At the late mass on Sunday and Monday and Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. banns of matrimony were published for the third time between Miss Rita C. Sneeringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Sneeringer,

Littlestown SCHOOL PATROL ORGANIZED BY CHIEF MILLER

Pupil patrols of both the public and parochial schools have been organized during the past week by Chief of Police Albert H. Miller, Jr. Members include: Public school, Guy P. Brown, captain; Judy Ruggles, first lieutenant; Barbara Crouse, second lieutenant; Shirley Holt, Carolyn Brown, William Renner, Larry White, Douglas Leatherman, Mary Ritter, Jean Kruel, Paul Snyder and Robert Beards; parochial school, Robert Beards, captain; James O. Kress, first lieutenant; Lawrence Ernst, John Busbey and Robert Omdorf.

At the Sunday morning worship service at Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed church, the pastor, Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, spoke on the subject, "Never Say Horrible." The anthem, sung by the Senior choir, was the Crusaders' hymn, "Beautiful Savior," accompanied by Miss Shirley Gohrecht, church organist. Announcements made to the Rev. Reynolds included the September meeting of the teachers of the children's Sunday school, department, to be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John E. Stangnough, M. street, with Mrs. J. Everett Feaser, acting as co-hostess.

The Ladies' Aid society of Redeemer's church will hold its first fall meeting on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the social hall of the church. The Senior choir will hold its regular weekly rehearsal Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Dedicate Home Addition

An addition to the Homewood Reformed Church Home for the Aged at Hagerstown will be dedicated on Saturday, September 15. The dedication service will be held at 2 p.m. at which time Rev. Allen S. Meek, president of the Lancaster Theological seminary, will be the speaker. If enough people from Redeemer's church signify their intentions of attending the dedication a bus will be secured to go to Hagerstown. Those wishing to go should contact Rev. Reynolds, Sunday, September 16, the first anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone at Homewood will be celebrated. The Rev. Charles Enders will be the guest speaker at a

Littlestown
Littlestown — The Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan announced at the Sunday morning masses at St. Aloysius church that the annual Ford Hours devotions will begin on Sunday, September 16, at 10 a.m. mass, with a Jesuit priest as the celebrant. Sunday evening devotions will be at 7 o'clock.

At the late mass on Sunday and Monday and Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. banns of matrimony were published for the third time between Miss Rita C. Sneeringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Sneeringer, East King street, and Leo Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Riley, near town, both of the parish. A nuptial mass will take place Saturday, September 15, at 9 a.m. Daily mass at 7:15 a.m.

The Littlestown Joint School board will hold its September meeting Tuesday evening. The executive board will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the office of the supervising principal, Paul E. Kinn, and the meetings of the joint board and the individual boards will follow.

An organization meeting of the Men's Bowling league of Littlestown will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at Basehoar's Bowling alleys, North Church street. All officers of the league, team captains and all those interested in the sport are invited to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Mildred Zepp, Riley apartments, was the recipient of the Appreciation Day award on Saturday evening at the 9 o'clock program. Mrs. Zepp received five percent of the total jackpot which contained

Five Are Killed In Plane Crash

Phillipsburg, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP)—A plane ferrying four teenagers on a sight-seeing jaunt failed to gain altitude yesterday and crashed in a nearby cornfield.

The pilot and his four passengers from Easton, Pa., were killed after the single-engine Sunbeam went up 50 feet and appeared to stall and tilt on its left wing plunging earthward about a half mile from Phillipsburg.

approximately $425 Mrs. William H. Renner, Prince street, received a $21 merchandise certificate from the Littlestown Five and Ten Cent store at the 9 o'clock program.

Georgetta Marie Brown, 16-year-old daughter of Ernest M. Brown, Jr. and Martina V. Heffner, Brown, Chas. Mills, Md., was baptized on Thursday evening by the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ Evangelical and Reformed church, at the parsonage, East King street.

A reunion of the family of the late M. A. L. Tristle was held on Sunday afternoon at St. Luke's church, near White Hall. A picnic lunch was enjoyed by all and group games, including softball and horseshoe pitching, took place.
